Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. Reese Ramey Bible

Reese Ramey and his family lived in Twiggs Co. Ga. in the Marion Co. area. He was a farmer and worked for the railroad. Originally from Jasper Co., Ga. he was the son of William Ramey. His wife, Hennie, was the daughter of Henry Land of Twiggs Co.

The Bible is now in the possession of Reese's granddaughter, Mary Frances Lipford. The two Lawrence children listed in the Bible are thought to be Will and Ethel Lawrence, Reese's nephew and niece. The entries are in four different handwritings. The Bible is in poor condition and lacks a title page that would show publication date.

NAMES OF GEORGIA SOLDIERS BURIED AT CAMP DOUGLAS, ILLINOIS

A monument 40 feet high, of Georgia granite stands in Oakwood cemetery, Chicago, Ill., honoring six thousand Southern soldiers who died in Camp Douglas prison, Ill., during the War Between the States 1861-1865.

Of this number there are some 125 Georgians, the names having been copied by Mr. Jas. A. Estes while on a visit to this son , T. H. Estes in Chicago last summer.

The monument was erected in July 1893, the names of the dead Georgia soldiers thereon being as follows;

A note of explanation should be included on this list of names. It was copied from the orginial newspaper article, and a great deal of care was expended to insure the spelling of names and other information is as it was in the original article. It should also be noted that in the list of names from Johnson, Benj'm to Johnson, Andrew the unit designations were not legible so some are missing. There also appears to be other printing errors (people made mistakes then as now). On the spelling of Carter, Wison C., it is possible that they misspelled his name and that Wison should be Wilson. GRIFFIN, W. E. -- D, 63RD appears to have been listed twice, one was very hard to read.. SORRELL, STEPHEN was listed as a member of A, 116th, however this appears to be a misprint as the highest numbered Georgia unit was the 66th Infantry Regiment, it probably should be the 16th Regiment. JENKINS, JNP -- K, 55TH appears to be a mistake and JNP probably should be JNO (O and P are real close on the keyboard). The article noted that there were 125 names while actually there are 342 and there may be other mistakes which we did not find. The reason Rhodes, Wm. appears out of order is a mistake on the part of the typist.

The following information is provided for those who might not be familiar with the old abbreviations used :

G, 16th CAV= G Troop, 16th Cavalry, The article did not indicate whether the Cavalry units were Regiments or battalions.

D, 55th = D Company, 55th Infantry Regiment, Companies used letters and Regiments Numbers. The article did not indicate it but as it listed units as Battalions it is felt that the others were Regiments.

B, 2ND BATTN S. S.= B Company, 2nd Battalion, Sharpshooters.

D, 8TH BATTN = D Company, 8th Battalion

E, 1ST S. Gd = E Company, 1st State Guards

GA St R. R. Grd = ?? Not sure but this appears to be one of the Georgia State Guards unit.

E, 2ND RES = E Company, 2nd Reserve.

B, 1ST (Almstead's) and Mercer's Batn = This is the same unit with two errors. Batn is an error and it should be Olmstead's. There were more than one Regiment with the designation 1ST in Georgia and they used the commander's name to keep them straight. Both Mercer and Olmstead commanded the 1st Georgia Volunteer Infantry Regiment at different times.

The following are abbreviations of first names:

BENJ'M = Benjamin
CHAS = Charles
GEO = George
JACK'N= Jackson
JAS = James
JASP = Jasper
JNO = John
NICH'S = Nicholes ?
MICH'L = Michael
ROBT = Robert
STEPH'N = Stephen
THOS = Thomas
WM = William
GENJ = ??? Don't have a clue..

IN MEMORY OF VICTOR MYRICK

The Society would like to dedicate this issue in Memory of Victor Myrick. He was a charter member of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society and served the society in several important positions. In 1981 he served as Vice President, from 1982 to 1990 as Workshop Chairman and appeared many times on the Dell Ward show. In 1983 he was elected President and again in 1989 and 1990. He served on the Publication Committee from 1990 to 1997, and as First Vice President in 1992. During his life he published several books related to genealogy: "Census Records of Pulaski Co & Bleckley Co, GA", "Census Records of Twiggs Co, GA", and "Census Records of Wilkinson Co, GA." He also did "The Myrick Family History" a history of his own family.

We don't think anyone ever worked any harder or was any more dedicated to the society than he. Any time he was asked to do something Victor would find the time to accomplish it. He was so knowledgeable of Genealogy that people continuously contacted him through the years for help. His dedication to Genealogy as well as that of a school principal and Pastor was well known. He was a member of several other clubs & Society's and he is truly missed by his family and all of his many friends.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
POST OFFICE BOX 2024
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

Non-Profit
Tax Exempt
Org. GA

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, Inc. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U.S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the society is a tax-exemption organization under Section 501(c)(3), U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected Directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and

To promote the collection and the preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1995 are: $20.00 for individual membership; $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related persons in same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries which a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings are one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth - most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7pm on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who has found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meeting of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our society. For a membership application writhe to the Corresponding secretary at address shown in the heading above or call (912) 9 5 3 - 3 1 1 4.

THE ROLL BOOK FOR THE SOCIETIES OF THE HOUSTON CIRCUIT ca. 1835

Editorial Note

Not many roll books from this period have survived because most circuits were more attentive to keeping Quarterly Conference Minutes than to keeping roll records. Most QC Minutes of the period list only numbers of persons taken into the society or removed.. Rarely are they named or accountings given of individual entry or disposal. For this reason, the Houston Circuit roll is a "find." It not only gives the names of those who are members of its eleven societies, but it also records the names of those who were the local deacons and elders, exhorters, and class leaders.

At the period of this roll's recording, there were twenty five local and itinerant preachers scattered throughout eleven societies, a generous helping of able leaders for such a small band of people. The roll also reflects how these small groups fostered candidates for the local and itinerant ministry. They were wellsprings of nurture for ministerial candidates as well as training schools for those unskilled in public speaking and Biblical exposition.

Local deacons and elders were usually licensed for two years at a district conference meeting presided over by the Presiding Elder. That conference had the authority to license persons to preach on an annual basis, upon their recommendation by the societies in which they were members at their Quarterly Conference. The District Conference then recommended ordination of local preachers to the annual conference, which would vote to receive them into either the local or itinerant connection.

A licensed local preacher was eligible for the office of deacon after preaching for four years. Four additional years qualified the preacher for ordination as an elder in the local connection. The value of these preachers (on hand daily) was that they were able to conduct meetings and services in the absence of the itinerant or traveling preacher who, in many instances, could not meet with a given society more than once or twice in a month's period. Someone had to be there to bury, baptize, and hold services in the interim, and it was normally the local preacher.

Perhaps the seat of the Houston Circuit for the period described was Haynesville, nine miles southeast of Perry, Georgia. It was a strong society, centrally located in Houston County and probably the host society for Quarterly and District conferences. Other societies mentioned in this roll book are Flint River, Sand Hill, Shiloh, Liberty Chapel, Mt. Carmel, pg 164. Captain J. G. Royal died rather suddenly at his residence about six miles northwest of Perry, GA on 20 Nov 1884. He died of dropsy of the heart. He was born in Burke Co., GA, but lived in this county (Houston) within five miles of where he died since he was a small boy. He was a Captain in the Confederate service and leaves six sisters and two brothers. He was buried at Providence Church.

Asbury Chapel, New Providence and New Hope. Their locations at the present time are unknown. (By Harold Lawrence)

A couple of interesting items comes from "Cemeteries and Obituaries of Houston County Georgia" by Addie P. Howell.

Pg 272. Mrs Sallie Harper Anderson, wife of Mr. Thomas F. Anderson, died at their home near Providence Church on 7 Jun 1910. She was 35 years old and had been married approximately thirteen years. THE HOME JOURNAL THURSDAY AUGUST 30,1888 PERRY, GA.

PICNIC AT PROVIDENCE CHURCH

In company with Mr. E. S. Wellons, this writer left Perry last Thursday morning to attend the Sunday School picnic at Providence Church about 7 miles northwest of Perry.

It was our pleasure to meet many friends, and soon we were enjoying the programme that had been arranged. In the Church, Superintendent J. W. Prator opened the exercises by stating the purpose of the meeting, saying that the fall programme could not be carried out, on account of the unavoidable absence of some who had been expected to participate.

Master Clifford Hatcher delivered an excellent original address on the subject of Pleasure. Then followed recitations: Master Bryant Steadman, "Do The Right, Boys". Master Clarence Hatcher, "The Moneyless Man;" Master Clifford Prator, "The Great Famine Cry."

Then Reverend J. W. Austin talked plainly, yet eloquently, to the boys and girls about the danger of forming bad habits and the necessity of becoming religious in early life. Of course, there was singing at. proper intervals, and the rendition of each song was good, under the leadership of ProL E. B. Vinson.

After the benediction by Mr. Austin, the people went out of the church and stood beneath trees, and very soon the invitation to dinner was given. About three hundred people gathered around the table, the divine blessing was invoked and then the six hundred hands and three hundred mouths were busy with that dinnera typical Houston County picnic dinner that needs no specific description. Abundant in quantity, excellent in quality, unsurpassable in variety. Then the hospitality of the good people who prepared and presided over it-their superiors can not be found.

After dinner the young people found pleasure in several old fashioned games, and the others enjoyed themselves at will, without let or hindrance. There was more good singing in the church, and little Miss Fannie Hartsrield captured the crowd with a recitation from Shakespeare.

The day was full of pleasure and our first attendance upon a Providence picnic will remain fresh in our memory for many years to come. (Writer unknown)

THE FAMILY BIBLE OF JOHN FRANKLIN GULLEDGE AND ELIZABETH ELLEN MANN

The family bible of John and Elizabeth Gulledge came into the possession of myself (Millard H. Simmons, a great-grandson of the above) upon the death of my grandmother, Julia Eley Duke Gulledge. It is in rather poor condition having seen much hard use and the type of paper it is printed on is of a rather low quality which has caused it to become brittle causing the edges to flake.

My mother (Mildred Louise Gulledge Simmons, daughter of George Millard Gulledge) informed me that some of the older children made the bible entries. Exactly when she does not know. My estimate is that it was probably between 1901 and 1903 when most of the birth entries were made. This is based on the fact that all the entries through 1900 are in the same hand writing and the ink used on all these entries are the same. It is only after this point that different ink and handwriting styles are evident.

The following is an extraction of the bible. Other additional information has been added based on my research.

John Franklin Gulledge and Elizabeth Ellen Mann were united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony on 18 November 1876 in Monroe County, GA.

Where they got the B. from is unknown unless another nickname may have been Lizzie B. What I do know is that her correct name is Elizabeth Ellen Mann.

Anyone who is researching this family should contact Millard Simmons, [redacted] for more information.

THE JOE BROWN CENSUS

submitted by Bobby Stokes

The Joe Brown census was conducted by the governor of the state of Georgia, Joe Brown, during the Civil War (or the War Between the States if you are from the south). Authorized by the act of 14 December 1863, the purpose was for the reorganizing of the Georgia State Militia.

The state militia captains were to take a role of their district and list all the male residents therein who were eligible for service. The census gives the name, age, occupation, place of birth, and lists exemptions. It is unfortunate that the individual enrolling officers did not included the exact dates when they did their census. However, it is probable that due to the urgent nature of the situation the census was conducted within two or three months after the act was published. These militia census provide a record of the males who were left in the counties in Georgia during the war.

At the end of each roll of a Militia District the enrolling officer would put the statement:

"I certify, on honor, that this role exhibits a true enrollment of the #577 (present) Militia Company District, as required by the act of 14th December 1863, for reorganization the Militia of the State of Georgia."

This statement was included on all the rolls and only the district number changed however because of space this statement has been omitted in the following article.

Obituary.

Died, in this City, on the 9th instant, in the 33d year of his age, John W. Swanson, of Typhoid Fever. Mr. Swanson was born in Jasper County, Georgia, but has been for years a resident of this City. For a long time a Compositor in the Journal, Messenger and Daily Telegraph Offices, ever faithful in the discharge of his duties, always generous and kind to all, and displaying the distinct characteristics of the gentleman, his death creates a vacuum in our midst which time can never fill. Persevering, honest and industrious, the community at large has lost in his decease one of its best citizens. Although not a member of any particular Church, he was a [illegible] his friends have every reason to believe, that he has gone to that happy home above, where [illegible] never reach him and peace and unity reign forever. A few hours before he died, he told his wife to live in hope, I see Jesus, behold the tree of life.

He leaves an interesting family of a wife and three small children, to mourn his loss, fulfilling every duty as a citizen, his attachment to his home and family was a prominent characteristic. In his death, his wife lost a kind and affectionate husband, and his children a father who always made the welfare of his family preeminent above all other things. May they recollect that the Providence who has permitted this sad affliction to fall upon them, has also promised rest to the weary and heavy laden—that he never inflicts a heavier blow than it affords us strength to bear—that it does all things for the best.

May we all so live as to meet him in that happy home above, where there is no parting, nor shedding of tears.

His Fellow-Compositors.

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all-day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries that a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings is one of the largest in the southeast. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer-designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth – most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7.00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who have found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary or call (912) 953-3114.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U. S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Society is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501©(3), U. S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and;

To promote the collection and preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1998 are $20.00 for individual membership or $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related individuals in the same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all-day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries that a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings is one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer-designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth – most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7.00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who have found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary or call (912) 953-3114.

EDITOR'S PAGE

I would like to start this page by thanking all of the people who have contributed material (and provided other assistance) since I became editor of our Quarterly. I would like to say a special thanks to Addie Howell and Helen Hudson for their guidance, encouragement and other contributions. Because I followed editors like Bill Henry and Victor Myrick, I felt (and still feel) inadequate to the task, but with your understanding and continuing contributions to the Quarterly, I believe we can continue the high standards they established.

Every member of the Society can make a contribution to the Quarterly. Along those lines, I would ask all members to submit material publication. Most of us have surveyed small family cemeteries, obtained information from family Bibles, etc. Please submit that information for publication so that future generations will have it available for their use. Also, all of us have unanswered questions, or lack certain information in our research. Submit those questions to Addie Howell at the Society's address and she will include them as queries in a future Quarterly. You may be pleasantly surprised to find out that someone else has the answer.

We attempt to provide you interesting and informative material in each Quarterly but we need feedback from you to let us know if we are meeting that goal. Please let me know what you would like to see (or not see) in the Quarterly. I am certain that there are a lot of good ideas out there, so send them to me at [redacted]3, or e-mail me at [redacted].

DYER PLANTATION CEMETERY
TWIGGS COUNTY, GEORGIA

(Contributed by Joyce Green)

The cemetery is in dense woods, now leased to a hunting club. It's on old Dyer Plantation lands. You need a guide, as the cemetery is difficult to locate. Also, the two lots covered with hydrangeas may contain additional graves but it's so thick I could not determine if there were, or were not, additional graves. Go to the end of Cannon Road in Gordon and continue on foot. It's located on a hill and is completely overgrown. Our guide was Robert Smith, [redacted].

WADLEY FAMILY CEMETERY
MONROE COUNTY, GEORGIA
(Contributed by Bobby Stokes)

This cemetery, known as the Wadley Family Cemetery, is reached by traveling north on Forsyth Road (old U.S. Highway 41) from Macon, GA, into Monroe County. Past Bolingbroke, go under the I-475 overpass and approximately one mile farther. Burke Road (should be Burt) will be seen intersecting from the South. Approximately one-quarter mile farther, a private drive will be seen intersecting from the South. Turn here. The drive goes back to an old house now being remodeled, assumed to be the old Wadley home. The house is approximately one-half mile off the highway. The cemetery is located about 200 feet off the East side of the drive before reaching the house.

The cemetery is surrounded by a granite block wall, approximately 42 inches high, 16 inches wide and 75 feet square. There is a heavy iron entrance gate in the west wall. There is a thin stand of hardwood outside the wall. The burial grounds are being kept and are in relatively good condition.

The inscriptions were copied by Bobby F. Stokes on 11 September 1996 from all monuments, slabs, tombstones and pillow markers seen in this cemetery. There were also two inscriptions copied from granite benches located against the inside wall of the cemetery.

Beginning on the West wall of the cemetery and taking down inscriptions in each row:

First Row:
Emily Harrison King; 1 Apr 1916; 25 Sep 1989 (granite slab)
Harvey Coleman; 28 Mar 1901; 1 Apr 1960 (granite slab)

Richard Barnard Wadley; 2 Sep 1891; 15 Dec 1962 (granite slab)

Pauline Lewis, wife of Frank H. Wadley, Jr.; 24 Oct 1903; 31 Dec 1971 (granite slab)
Mary Ida Wadley, beloved wife of Paul A. Thrash; 7 Feb 1900; 14 Nov 1971 (granite slab)

Susan Wadley; 11 Jan 1906; 1 Apr 1982 (granite slab)
Beside this grave is an uprooted tree stump. The tree has been cut from the cemetery. There is what appears to be a large upright tombstone lying partly buried by this uprooted stump. The inscription is facing the ground and it is too large for one person to turn over.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U. S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Society is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501©(3), U. S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and;

To promote the collection and preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1998 are $20.00 for individual membership or $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related individuals in the same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all-day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries that a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings is one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer-designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth – most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7.00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who have found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary or call (912) 953-3114.

EDITOR'S PAGE

The Society will soon send you correspondence concerning membership renewal. If you have not done so by the time you receive this Quarterly, please renew your membership. We want to keep you as a member! If we are not serving your genealogical needs, please let us know and we will do everything we can to satisfy them. We work very hard to get and keep our members because without you the Society could not exist.

Along those same lines, we would like very much for each of you to give us ideas for improvement. Are we working on the right things? Would you like to see us publish a short family history every once in a while? Please give us some fresh ideas!

I would like to give a special thanks to the members that are continuing to do an outstanding job of abstracting material for publication. I appreciate it very much! Keep up the good work!

My son-in-law is an avid deer hunter. He recently returned from a hunt to tell me he had accidentally found a gravestone in the middle of the woods. He found only a single grave but there may be more in the area. I intend to visit the area to document who was buried there, and to see if I can find any more graves. If you have friends or family who hunt, please ask to them to be alert for any old cemeteries or graves. If they find any, please document the particulars and send them to me for publication. You may identify a grave that someone has been seeking for years.

Don't forget to renew your membership, and send us some items for publication such as queries, cemetery records, bible records, and any other item of a genealogical nature.

THE GENEALOGICAL COLLECTION OF THE TELFAIR COUNTY LIBRARY

Contributed by Rudy Dennis

During my short genealogical career I have visited several libraries throughout our twenty-seven county area. Most of them had at least some genealogical holdings but many of them had a surprising number of genealogical books and local family histories. I think it would be informative to our readers to know what and where these holdings are. Therefore, I will attempt to collect this information and provide it to you as time and space allows.

The Telfair County Library is located at 815 College Street, McRae, GA 31055. The telephone number is 912-868-2978. The hours of operation are: Mon-2 PM-8 PM; Tues-Wed-12 PM-6 PM; Thur-Fri-10 AM-4 PM. The library is closed on weekends. The staff is small but very helpful.

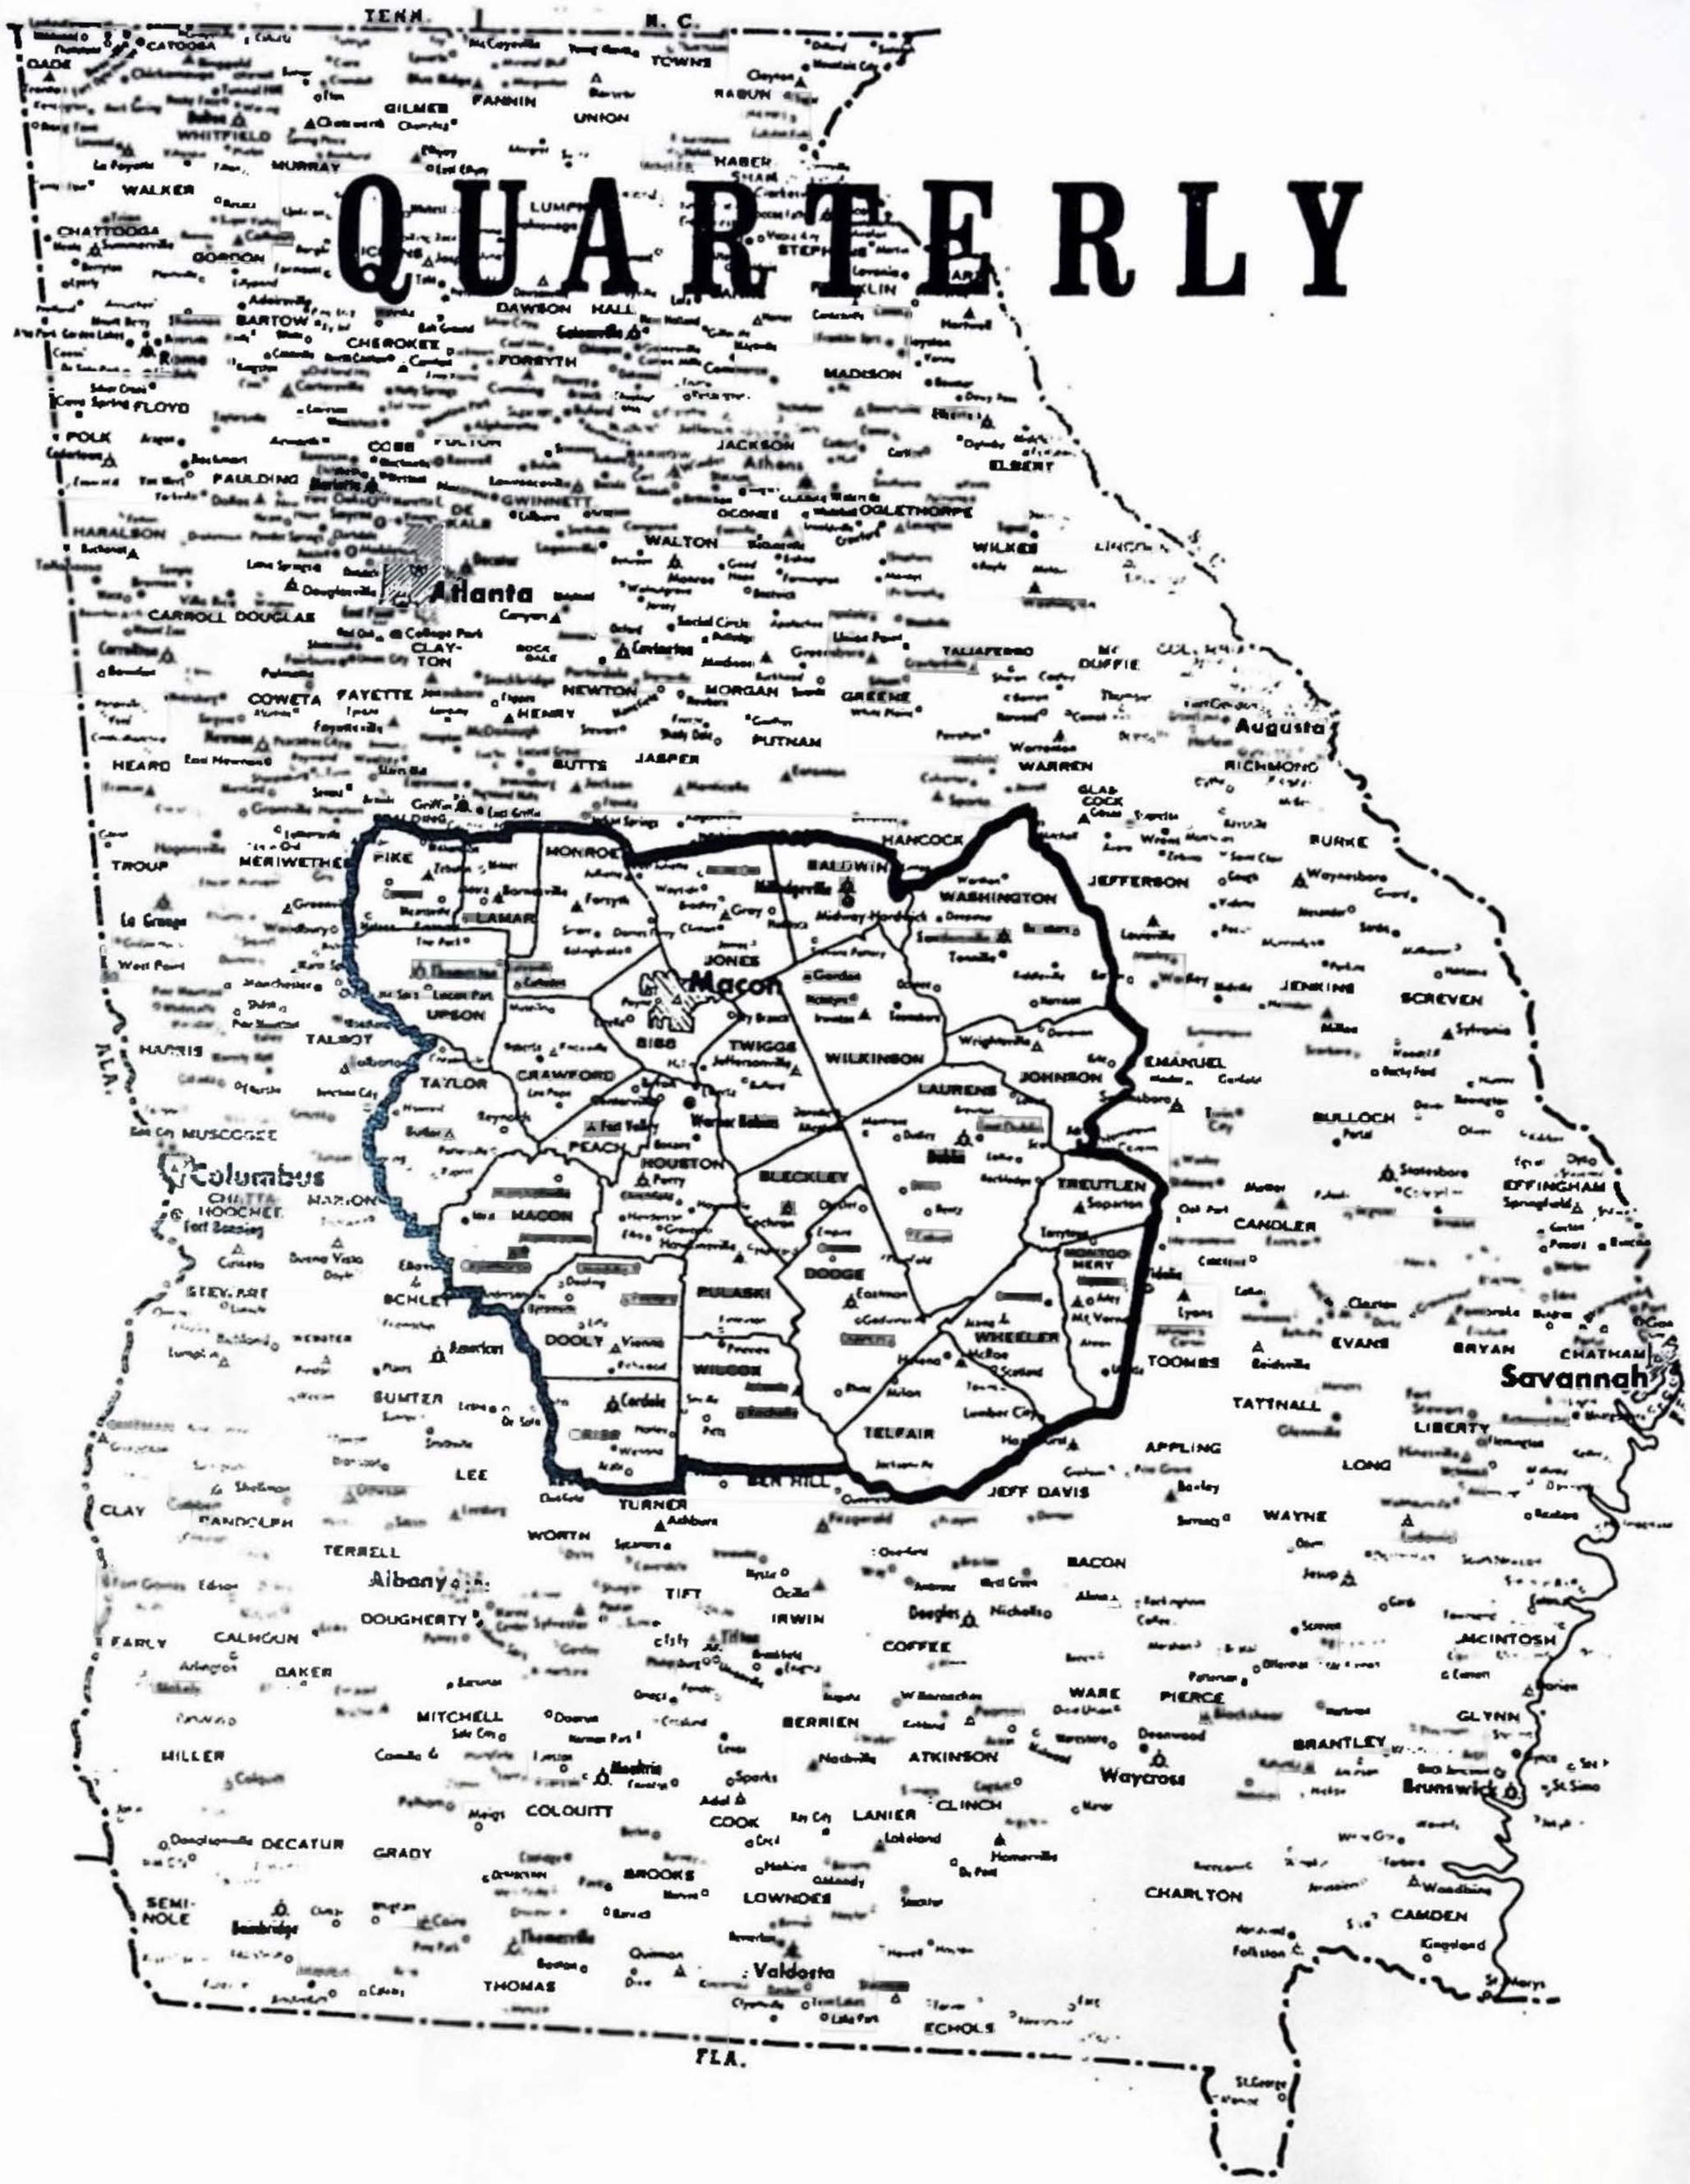
CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.



QUARTERLY

Volume 21 1999 Number 1

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U. S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Society is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501©(3), U. S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and;

To promote the collection and preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1998 are $20.00 for individual membership or $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related individuals in the same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all-day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries that a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings is one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer-designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth – most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7.00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who have found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary or call (912) 953-3114.

EDITOR'S PAGE

In the last Quarterly I mentioned that my son-in-law found a grave while deer hunting. Using a map he provided I found the gravesite. It was a child (may be male or female) named E. D. Johns, b. 12 Aug 1886, d. 2 Oct 1891. Since then he has found two more grave sites that I could not locate. The location is exactly 5.6 miles north of the front gate at the Little Ocmulgee State Park on U.S. 319/441, on the West side of the highway. I hope to return to survey the other two graves when he can take me directly to them.

Starting on page 25, this Quarterly contains a list of the "Georgia Pioneers" approved by the Society. The Georgia Pioneer Descendent Program issues a certificate to those individuals that can prove they are a descendant of an ancestor who settled in Georgia before 1 January 1826. The documentation for these "Georgia Pioneers" is at the Washington Memorial Library on College Street in Macon, GA. It is available for your review if you find someone you think is related to you. If you are interested in this program, write Addie Howell, Central Georgia Genealogical Society, P. O. Box 2024, Warner Robins, GA 31099-2024, and ask her for an application.

The purpose of the R. J. Taylor, Jr. Foundation trust is to promote genealogical research and study in Georgia in conjunction with the Georgia Genealogical Society and the Georgia Department of Archives and History, in order to secure information of a genealogical nature from public and private records by way of indexing, abstracting, and historical research, and to provide for the preservation and publication of the results of such work by appropriate means. The primary emphasis is on the collection of genealogical data concerning citizens of Georgia who were residents prior to 1851. The Foundation has financed the publication of many genealogical books, including some of ours. For more information, visit their web-site at www.taylorfoundation.org/.

Page one of this Quarterly contains a photograph thought to be a reunion of Company F, Georgia 57th Regiment held in Roberta, GA, on 28 Jun 1906. The man in the circle is Reese Busbee Schofill, the second husband of Martha Ellen Elizabeth Bryant. She was the daughter of Robert Bryant and Temperance Rowell. If you can provide any additional information concerning the photo contact Wayne and Sandra Riner at email: , or Helen Hudson, P.O. Box 2024, Warner Robins, GA 31099-2024. If you have any interesting photographs that you would like for us to publish, please contact me at the same address.

THE GENEALOGICAL COLLECTION OF THE M. E. RODEN MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Contributed by Rudy Dennis

As mentioned in our last issue, I will on occasion provide our readers with a list of the genealogical holdings at some of the libraries in our 27 county area of emphasis. The M. E. Roden Memorial Library has numerous genealogical references, some of which you probably will not find elsewhere. I highly recommend that you visit the library to try to find that last obscure bit of information that you have been seeking.

The M. E. Roden Memorial Library is located at 400 Commerce Street, Hawkinsville, GA 31036. The telephone number is 912-892-3155. The hours of operation are: Monday through Friday—10:00 A.M.—5:30 P.M. and Saturday morning—9:00 A.M.—12:00 noon. The library is closed on Sunday. The staff is proud of their holdings and eager to help you find the resource you need.

JACOB PARKERSON'S REVOLUTIONARY WAR PENSION FILE (S-31902)

Contributed by Rudy Dennis

Jacob Parkerson was a Revolutionary soldier who came to Telfair (now Dodge) County during the 181_'s and settled about seven miles from Eastman. He came to this area from Greene County, where he had resided since the late 1780's. He built the first church in present Dodge County, known as Parkerson Church, near Parkerson's Lake on Gum Swamp.

He went to the Pulaski County Superior Court on 20 April 1835 to make a declaration of his service during the Revolutionary War so that he might receive a pension authorized by the Revolution Act passed 7 June 1832. His pension was approved on 2 December 1836 for the semi-annual amount of $40.00. They also paid him arrears in the amount of $440.00, a large sum in those days. His declaration reads as follows:

State of Georgia)
Pulaski County)

On this the twentieth day of April in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty five, personally appeared before me, James Pollieu, one of the judges of the superior court of the state of Georgia in open court for the county aforesaid, Jacob Parkerson, a resident of said county aged seventy three years who first being duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make this following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the Revolutionary Act passed June 7, 1832. That he enlisted in the 2nd Regiment of the Virginia state troops as a private under Capt. Smith. The 1Lt. And 2nd Lieuts. were brothers by the name of Welch or Walch. That he was raised & resided in Northhampton County in the state of Virginia and was enlisted in that county in the fall of 1777 and was soon after attached to Mulenburg's Brigade and immediately marched to Williamsburg and from there to the school hill at Valley Forge where the whole regiment underwent vaccination and remained during the winter. While declarant remained in the regiment he does not recollect distinctly enough to say positively who was his Maj. Or Colonel, that he continued in said Regiment until the battle of Monmouth in which this declarant was engaged at which Gen. Mulenburg commanded the Brigade under Washington. That shortly after this battle he having a brother in the North Carolina line, with the consent of the officers, he exchanged places with John Linch of John Graddock's Company, ____ 1st Lieut. And he supposes this declarants name was erased and that of the said John Linch placed upon the rolls in its 1st Lieut. That the brother of this declarant was the Sergeant of said Graddocks Company. That this company was attached to the light Infantry commanded by Col. Putnam and formed a part of Gen. Waynes Brigade. This Brigade lay at the issue of the Buttermilk Falls upon North (Hudson) River above the chevale-de-frise some miles & one mile above Fort Montgomery—formerly Pickett No. 1. This declarant was then marched against Stony Point which was stormed at the point of the bayonet. The countersign was "The Forts of Noms". Soon after this Capt. Graddock's Company joined the 2nd Regiment of the North Carolina line to which it originally belonged which was ordered to the South and marched to Philadelphia at which declarant was wounded. The troops should sail to Charleston but owing to a severe freeze they were compelled to proceed by land. On their way this declarant was taken sick and left at a D. Nesbits or Lesbits between Dumfries & Coalchester in the state of Virginia.

This Regiment having continued their march to Charleston, S. C., were soon after either killed or taken prisoner. After declarant's recovering his health, he proceeded to the South to join his Regiment but understanding the situation of the army to which he properly belonged he attached himself to the light horse under Col. Washington at Georgetown and assisted in saving the public property. He next was under Col. Sewell at Crop Creek, from thence to Ramsey's Mills where the troops joined those under the command of Gen. Rutherford. Soon after they formed a junction with the troops under Gen. Gates and marched to Camden at which place the army was defeated. After the defeat the declarant continued in service attached to the militia in Col. Caswells Regiment and under Gen. Caswell until the close of the war. Declarant never received a discharge owing to his never having found his Regiment or company. That the termS of service is four years and 6 mos. That he was born in Northhampton County, Virginia, and never returned after the war. Resided in North Carolina a few years and then removed to this state forty years ago. That he has no record of his age but has always dated his birth from the 3rd of March 1761. That declarant is known to Levi Bush, a clergyman, and Levi Harrell, who resides in the neighborhood of declarant. And the said Parkerson does hereby relinquish every claim whatever to a pension or an amnesty except the present which he declares. That his name is not on the Pension Roll of any agency in any state.

CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC.
WARNER ROBINS, GEORGIA 31099-2024

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U. S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Society is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501©(3), U. S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and;

To promote the collection and preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1998 are $20.00 for individual membership or $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related individuals in the same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all-day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries that a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings is one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer-designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth – most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7.00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who have found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary or call (912) 953-3114.

EDITOR'S PAGE

I would like to thank the people who continue to contribute articles for publication in our quarterly. I do not have time available to do enough research, typing, etc., to put together a complete quarterly, so keep those articles coming!

A special thanks this quarter to Mr. Emory G. Hatcher of [redacted]. He is a members who has taken the time to send us an excellent analysis of the Bible of John Hatcher, Junior, and Margaret "Peggy" (Lord) Hatcher, who were residents of Crawford County, Georgia, at the time of their deaths. John Hatcher, Junior, was the son of Major John Hatcher, Senior, Revolutionary War veteran, who migrated from Mecklenburg County, Virginia, to Edgefield County, South Carolina, about 1764. He and his wife, Ann (Sanders) Hatcher, had five children at the time, one of them being John, Senior. Robert obtained several land grants in the Province of Georgia, the first being in 1767 in St. Paul's Parish, about five miles below the City of Augusta. He and his family are believed to be the first Hatchers to settle in Georgia.

The Society will not have a workshop this Fall, but will make every effort to have one next Spring. We would greatly appreciate volunteers to help plan and carry out the workshop. If you are interested please contact any of the staff or board members.

We are still looking for ways to get more involved in historical and genealogical activities in our 27 county area. I know some of you have excellent ideas about how to do it. Please contact the Society and let us know what they are.

Dear Ancestor

Your Tombstone stands among the rest;
Neglected and alone.
The name and date are chiseled out
On polished, marbled stone.
It reaches out to all who care
It is too late to mourn.
You did not know that I exist
You died and I was born.
Yet each of us are cells of you
In flesh, in blood, in bone.
Our blood contracts and beats a pulse
Entirely not our own.
Dear Ancestor, the place you filled
One hundred years ago
Spreads out among the ones you left
Who would have loved you so.
I wonder if you lived and loved,
I wonder if you knew
That someday I would find this spot,
And come to visit you.

SOMEONE PLEASE HELP ME!!!!

I am an old family bible. I have a leather cover an am 12 inches long, 10 inches wide, and 3 inches thick. I was printed in 1871 in Hartford, Conn. by the American Publishing Company. I contain both the old and new testaments. Although my back is not what it once was I still have all my pages and at 128 years old that is not too bad. At one time I was the treasured possession of a family and recorded the marriages, births and deaths of the family and their descendants. This family was once in the state of Maine. However due to events beyond my control I have been separated from my loved ones and find myself in the hands of strangers (kind southern strangers, but strangers still). I have found a temporary home with a member of the CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY but would love to be reunited with a descendent of my original family. An extract of the contents of my Marriage, births and deaths pages is presented below in order to help. If you are a descendent of any of these people and would like to offer me a home please contact the Central Georgia Genealogical Society , PO Box 2024, Warner Robins, GA 31099-2024 and I could be yours.

HATCHER FAMILY BIBLE

This family bible is a King James I version. It was printed and published by M. Carey & Son of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1819. In my opinion, the first owners of the bible were John Hatcher, Junior, and his wife, Margaret (Lord) Hatcher. She was commonly known by the nickname "Peggy." At their deaths, they were residents of Crawford County, Georgia. John Hatcher, Junior, was the fourth child of Major John and Mary (Brady) Hatcher. At the time of their deaths, they were residents of Wilkinson County, Georgia.

After the bible was acquired, either by gift or purchase, someone carefully entered the names and birth dates of all of the children of John and Peggy Hatcher. At the time of this entry, eleven of their children had been born. These names were entered in chronological order by date of birth. The last entry was Francis Narcisa Hatcher who was born 1 May 1831. With all of these entries being made at the same time, there is a strong possibility that the bible may have been acquired just after Francis' birth. Since these children were apparently the first to be entered, this certainly creates a presumption that the bible was first the property of John and Peggy Hatcher.

Immediately following these entries, the names and birth dates of the two remaining children of John and Peggy Hatcher were entered in an entirely different handwriting. These thirteen children constituted all of their offspring. See page 678 and the comments following.

We find in the bible, at page 680, the birth and death dates of John and Peggy Hatcher. Also on this page are listed John's father and mother, Major John and Mary (Brady) Hatcher, along with their birth dates and date of their marriage. Only the year of birth was given for Mary. Following this information, the names and birth dates of the first four children born to Major John and Mary (Brady) Hatcher were shown. This included John, Junior, as he was their fourth child. Evidence clearly points to John and Peggy Hatcher being the first owners of this bible. The only piece of important vital statistical information that is missing, regarding their individual family, is the date of their own marriage.

At some point following the death of John and Peggy Hatcher, the bible passed to their son Robert Hatcher, who married Abselia Elizabeth Burnett. This was a perfectly natural transition as Robert was the administrator of the estate of his father, and in all probability that of his mother. She died last, in the year 1854. This is predictably the year that Robert became owner of the bible.

Robert's ownership continued for many years. The names and birth dates of twelve of his known children are entered on the two loose pages found in the bible. The last name on the second loose page might possibly be another child of Robert. On page 677 are shown the names and marriage dates of five of his children. Two other names are listed on this page. A marriage date is shown for one person and not the other. Both of these females, Maryann and Anice Virginia Hatcher, might possibly be daughters of Robert.

Robert Hatcher's death on 4 May 1871 is recorded in the bible. His wife, Abselia Elizabeth (Burnett) Hatcher, died 16 August 1874. Her death is not listed. Sometime thereafter, the bible passed to Robert's twelfth child, Josephine Louisa Hatcher, who married Jack Causey.

The next owner of the bible was Elizabeth Mary Hancock who was commonly known as "Lizzie May." She was the daughter of Erastus Jerome and Martha Obedience (Hatcher) Hancock. Josephine Louisa Causey, known to her nieces and nephews as Aunt Josie, passed away 4 August 1950. Aunt Josie's children had no particular interest in the bible. Knowing of their cousin Lizzie May's keen interest in family genealogy, they offered it to her. She accepted it gladly. Lizzie May distinctly remembered their removing it from a shelf and handing it to her.

Lizzie May Hancock was a remarkable lady. She was intelligent, well educated and family oriented. It was from her that I learned much of the history of the chain of ownnership of the bible, and its contents, as I have related herein. She was a fountain of information on the Hatcher and Hancock families, as well as other families of Crawford County, Georgia. Unfortunately, I was not privileged to learn about Lizzy May until early 1983 when I heard of her ownership of the bible. I first met her in Macon, Georgia, in September 1983. Although I communicated with her frequently thereafter, I never saw her again. She died 11 December 1986 at the age of 92.

Lizzie May left the bible to a niece, Charlotte Burnett Thrasher, of [redacted], [redacted]. It is still in her possession. Charlotte is the daughter of Lizzie May's sister, Annie Maude Hancock, who married John Chester Burnett. Charlotte is a lover of family history so the bible is in good hands. She has reviewed my analysis of the bible, and its probable chain of ownership, and is agreement with it.

It is apparently believed by some Hatcher descendants that the first owner of this bible was Jeremiah B. Hatcher. In my opinion, this is erroneous. This Jeremiah was the first child of John and Peggy Hatcher. He was born 26 February 1813. His name appears on page 678.

Jeremiah B. Hatcher had four known children. The names and birth dates of the first two, William G. and Margaret A., are also entered on page 678, immediately following the name of John and Peggy Hatcher's last child, Francis Narcisa. Although Jeremiah had at least two more children, John and Robert Sanders, their names do not appear in the bible.

Jeremiah B. Hatcher was married twice. The names of his wives and the dates of their marriages do not appear in the bible. If the bible was ever owned by Jeremiah at all, he made very little use of it. He died circa 1881. His brother Robert died ten years earlier on 4 May 1871. Had the bible been in Jeremiah's possession at his death, surely it would have been left to one of his children and would presently be in the hands of one of his descendants. On the other hand, there appears to be a clear chain of ownership from John Hatcher, Junior, to Robert Hatcher and thence to his descendants.

There was another Jeremiah B. Hatcher that can quickly be eliminated as a possible owner of the bible. He was the first son of Major John and Mary (Brady) Hatcher. He was born on 20 September 1780. His name and birth date appear on page 678. He died in a hunting accident on 2 May 1806, before the bible was even printed.

The important point to remember is that the bible appears to have been in the caring hands of a descendant of John and Peggy Hatcher from the first day it was acquired. The exact identity of the first owner should in no way affect its authenticity.

ANALYSIS OF THE BIBLE

On my visit to Macon, Georgia, in September 1983, I obtained copies of the title page of the bible, and all pages in it that contained statistical information, from the owner, Lizzie May Hancock. There were six pages of the latter. Four were an integral part of the bible itself. They were numbered 677, 678, 679 and 680. The remainder were two loose pages that had been inserted in the bible.

Taking each of these pages, in order, I then proceeded to copy, in typewritten form, exactly what I saw in handwriting. I attempted to place each entry on the typewritten page in the same relative position that it occupied on the handwritten page. All errors in spelling, punctuation, grammar, division of words, etc., were copied just as they appeared in the original. Even some of the given names were not spelled in the usually accepted version, for even that day and age, for example, Reubin for Reuben. Nevertheless, they were copied just as they appeared.

Immediately following this copying process, I wrote comments pertaining to the entries for every page. There are very few persons in the bible that have not been identified, and hopefully placed in the proper family. The results of my efforts are included herein. In genealogy, in spite of the highest degree of care, errors seem to be inevitable. I welcome any input from any of the descendants of the persons listed in this bible.

Comments on Entries:

All persons listed in the marriage column could possibly be the children of Robert and Abselia Elizabeth (Burnett) Hatcher. Robert was the son of John Hatcher, Jr., and Margaret (Lord) Hatcher. Although Maryann's name was listed, no date of marriage was shown. Some of the names here are those listed in the two loose pages found inserted in the bible. Repeated names are Sallie A. E., who is probably Sarah A. E.; John W., who is probably John T.; Caroline F. C., who is probably Caroline Amanda; Charity A. S., who is listed the same; and Nannie S. E., who is probably Nancy E. Mary Ann and Anice Virginia (if they are children) were born after the last child listed on the loose pages.

The Reubin S. Hatcher shown in the birth column is the firstborn child of Robert Hatcher. It is believed that this entry corrects the date of birth shown for Reubin on the first loose page in the bible.

Margaret Lord was the wife of John Hatcher, Jr., and her name appears again as Margaret Hatcher in the second entry, right column, page 680. This entry may have been intended to correct that entry, the dates being only one day apart.

Comments On Entries:

All persons listed in the left column, and the first five persons listed in the right column, constitute all of the known children of John Hatcher, Jr., and his spouse, Margaret (Lord) Hatcher. However, there is one probable error in this list. The first eleven entries were obviously written by the same person at the same time. It is believed that this writer may have been a scribe, and not knowing the family that well, erroneously entered the name Henry Hatcher in place of the correct name, Mary Hatcher. There are no records of which I am aware that reflect a son named Henry. However, there was definitely a daughter named Mary. This can be proved through the probate proceedings of John Hatcher, Junior's, estate, on file in the Probate Court, Crawford County Courthouse, Knoxville, Georgia. John died intestate 7 March 1849 and on 2 July 1849 his son Robert was named administrator of the estate. On 13 October 1849 certain personal property was distributed to the widow and several of the children, Mary being one of them. Subsequent to this action, Mary married Winchester Watson on 1 January 1852. When the final assets of the estate were distributed, Mary was one of the heirs. Her husband signed a receipt for her share on 15 November 1854. There was no Henry mentioned in any of the proceedings.

The last two entries in the right column, William G. Hatcher and Margaret A. Hatcher, were the two eldest children of Jeremiah B. and Rebecca (Dunn) Hatcher. Jeremiah B. was the eldest son of John Hatcher, Junior, and Peggy (Lord) Hatcher.

Comments On Entries:

The first entry refers to Major John Hatcher, Senior, who was the son of Robert and Ann (Sanders) Hatcher. He was born in that part of Lunenburg County, Virginia, that later became Mecklenburg County. The second entry, Mary Hatcher, was the wife of Major Hatcher. Her maiden name was Brady. The third entry is the date of their marriage, which most likely took place in Richmond County, Georgia. The remaining four persons in the left column are the first four children of this marriage, in the order of their birth.

The first three entries in the right column refer to the death of John Hatcher, Junior, and the birth and death of his wife, Margaret (Lord) Hatcher. She was commonly known as "Peggy." See further comments re Margaret on page 677. The fourth entry represents the Robert Hatcher who was the son of John Hatcher, Junior. The parentage of Benjamin L. Hatcher, entry five, is unknown at this time. The last entry, Reubin Sanders Hatcher, is the first son of Robert Hatcher, just mentioned. See further comments re this Reubin at page 677.

HISTORY OF MT. CARMEL PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH CRAWFORD COUNTY, GEORGIA

Mt. Carmel Primitive Baptist Church is the third oldest church in Crawford County and was constituted on September 16, 1826.

The church was originally located eight miles west of Musella and had thirteen charter members.

The first pastor was Zachariah H. Gordon who also served as first pastor and was father of Confederate General John B. Gordon. Epherian Whitting and David Garrison served as first deacons and John Williams as first clerk. The third Sunday and the Saturday before it were chosen as meeting dates.

The original church was on the left, about 150 yards before the Nellie Wright homeplace on the right. The original cemetery is there.

A rift between churches in the Echeconnee Association occurred, whereby 10 of the 30 churches broke from the organization in September 1837. Jesse Mercer led the creation of the splinter organization---the forerunner of our Baptist Churches of today. Issues centered around establishment of Sunday School, establishment of missions to spread the gospel and temperance societies.

Of the remaining 20 churches, Mt. Carmel was a leading force in maintaining the more traditional values and beliefs of the Baptist faith. In 1839, they started calling themselves "Old School or Primitive Baptists".

In 1857, the church body decided to move the building to a more convenient location near the crossroads and Mt. Carmel Academy. Washington Cromwell Cleveland deeded five acres to the deacons and the church still stands here on the original site.

Washington Cleveland was a wealthy plantation owner whose estate founded the church property and he served for a number of years as pastor. He was also one of the signers of the Ordinance of Secession. He was licensed to preach at Mt. Carmel in May of 1838, and was ordained there January 13, 1840. He continued to serve Mt. Carmel until his death on May 8, 1869.

One of his sons, Wilde Cromwell Cleveland, served as Captain and later Colonel of the 6th Georgia Regiment of Alfred Colquitt's Brigade. Wilde Cleveland also served as pastor for a number of years. Father and son are both buried nearby in the old Cleveland Family Cemetery.

Mt. Carmel always had a strong black membership. Many slaves were members. After the war, many freed slaves continued to be members. There were approximately 30 black members in 1900. There continued to be black members up until the 1970's. Black members sat on the old wooden benches, in back of the Elder.

No pianos, organs, or musical instruments were used in the church. Singing was lead by a song leader, and was often very long. Sermons were the typical "Hellfire and Brimstone".

Foot washing and communion were part of the church ritual. Members washed the feet of other members.

Sacred harp singing were part of church life. On days when it took place church was always full. People would come from hundreds of miles around to hear the singing.

Following church on the third Sunday of each month was dinner on the grounds. It was a time for fellowship, singing, etc.

The Saturday before the third Sunday was "Cemetery Day". The members would turn out to rake leaves, clean the graves, and clean the cemetery.

The church took its role in the community very seriously. The conduct of its members was not only a reflection on the community, but a reflection on the church. The members were held to a strict code of behavior.

It is not hard to see that this church, which has spanned 173 years has had a tremendous impact on the lives of thousands of people. It is wonderful to see it being preserved for its historical impact on the county.

I would like to thank the members that continue to contribute articles for publication in our Quarterly! You are doing an outstanding job! You also generate interest from other people who have access to our Quarterly. For example, our last issue had an article titled "A Hatcher Family Bible" by Emory G. Hatcher of Denver, CO. He sent me a note just after publication that he had numerous inquiries concerning the Bible. Please take the time to thank these contributors because there would be no Quarterly without them.

A special thanks this quarter to William A. (Billy) Mills who contributed an article titled "Houston County Guardians Bond Abstracts". His work is excellent, and he has published several books that are listed in our list of publications for sale. They are a great value and I encourage you to purchase them if you have ancestors in Houston County. Billy, thanks for the article!

We recently had an incident in Warner Robins in which a developer was about to pave over a known grave. The developer resisted all efforts to move the grave to another place. Thanks to Addie Howell, who brought the subject up at a CGGS Board Meeting, the Society initiated efforts to hire a lawyer to stop the development until the grave could be moved. We did not have to hire the lawyer because the threat was enough to force the developer to agree to locate and move the grave to a suitable place. Most of the board members could recall similar situations, myself included, so we thought that in the next Quarterly we would publish the Georgia statute that prevents desecration of a grave. In the meantime, if you wish to know more about this statute, please contact Addie Howell or me.

Census Bureau's secret

The Washington Times
June 1, 1999, Tuesday Grover Norquist

Census Bureau's secret
Grover Norquist
The Washington Times; PART A; COMMENTARY; Pg. A12
June 1, 1999, Tuesday, Final Edition

The government has always had a funny way of hiding things it knows the public doesn't like. Tax increases are sometimes referred to as "user fees." The military refers to civilian causalities during war as "collateral damage." Not to be outdone by its government counterparts, the Census Bureau has its own seemingly innocuous term it will use in the 2000 Census called "arithmetic adjustment." What that really means is that the Census Bureau plans on deleting real people from the final count.

The 2000 Census will be unlike any census America has ever seen. As you may remember the Clinton administration had planned to count only 90 percent of the population and use statistical estimation, or polling, as the president has called it, to figure out the rest. Statistical wizardry was going to tell us what 27 million people look like and where they live. This would have been a risky proposition at best and a golden opportunity to fudge the numbers at worse. Thankfully, the Supreme Court found the Clinton scheme illegal this past January, but it didn't end there.

Not to be deterred by a little matter like a Supreme Court decision, the Clinton administration decided to move forward with a manipulated census. The administration will give its manipulated number to the states for purposes of redistricting, but not to Congress for purposes of apportionment. The administration wrongly believes the high court was only talking about Congress when it issued its decision.

There has never been any argument over whether there was an undercount in the 1990 Census. There was, and making reasonable efforts to eliminate the undercount and find those not counted is very important. However, not counting people who have legitimately filled out their census forms is wrong and will erode trust in the census ever further. Granted, anyone who has a fraudulent or duplicate form should have that form eliminated. But we're not talking about duplicate records here. Millions of Americans who don't own two homes and didn't send in two census forms are not going to be counted. We're talking about Joe and Joan America not being counted because the Census Bureau claims that people like them are overrepresented in the United States. What's ironic, and so typical of our government, is that for the first time in history the Census Bureau is going to use paid advertisements. Millions of dollars will be spent to encourage people to fill out their census forms and send them in, just to have some bureaucrat determine that the form shouldn't count.

The plan, in simple form, works like this. The Census Bureau will conduct two censuses. The first complies with the Supreme Court and is a full enumeration. The second is an adjustment based on a personal visit to 300,000 previously selected households (there are approximately 125 million households in America). The two censuses are then compared. If you appeared in the first census, but not in the second, you and people who share your demographics are considered overcounted and subtracted from the final count. If you appeared in the second and not in the first, you and people who share your demographics are considered undercounted and added to the final count. If you appear in both, then everything is just right.

Sounds a little like "Goldie Locks and the Three Bears," but this is far from a fairy tale. It's a real live nightmare. Forget your civic responsibility to fill out the form - or one-man, one-vote, or any noble notion that everyone deserves to be counted as a full person. This is a numbers racket and if the numbers don't add up, you don't get counted.

Congress has been placed in a difficult position. The president is intent on ignoring the Supreme Court, and the legislative reality is that there aren't enough votes to override a presidential veto of any legislation that would stop the madness at the Census Bureau.

But enough is enough, a line must be drawn somewhere. I believe Congress must do everything in its power to preserve the integrity of the census and make sure everyone is counted equally. At a minimum, Congress must prevent the Census Bureau from deleting people, unless it has a duplicate census form from them.

At a recent congressional hearing, Ken Prewitt, director of the Census Bureau was asked, if people were going to be deleted from the 2000 census. He said no, absolutely not. We're not going to delete anyone's "records" We're going to use "arithmetic adjustment." Well, I've paid enough "user fees" to know they are really taxes. And I've heard enough Pentagon briefings to know I never want to be referred to as "collateral damage." I also know enough about the 2000 census to know I don't want to be an "arithmetic adjustment." I just want to be counted.

WRITING FAMILY HISTORY

James T. Martin*

In 1978, Roots[1], by Alex Haley hit the bookstores. It is credited with starting a surge in genealogy which continues to-day. A few years later personal computers began to improve and were a great help to researchers. Influenced by the personal computer's ability to manipulate data, we moved to accepting bare-bones records without family histories.

It is time to reverse the trend and put Family History back in genealogy.

To accomplish this we need to view each family as a Family Unit, that is, a husband, wife, and children, and recognize that each Family Unit has a history of its own. In this way each unit is independent of all others, yet each is a building-block in the ancestral line. Bare-bones genealogy is really nothing more than a data base without a Family History. However, it is still our starting point. It is a skeleton to which we add the Family History. When we add family history we are talking about the family unit; where they lived, how they lived, what they did, and so forth.

Assuming you have a bare-bones record for the family units in your ancestral line, and need to add a family history. Start with the family unit where your father and mother are husband and wife and you are a child. From this point you can work back through the older generations until you have a history for as many family units as you have information. Also, if you included family units for some of your collateral and allied lines, you may branch out and include these units in your history.

Andrew Walker and Mary Ann (DODGE) MacCLENDON

The first paragraph below the title identifies the family unit to which the history pertains. This foremat should be followed for each family unit. If your family units are numbered, e.g. 5347, the number should be shown to the left just above the first line of the identification paragraph. The following is an example:

FU-5347

James Morris GOODSON, b.11 Mar.1869, bpl.Gum Sulphur (Community), Rockcastle County, Kentucky, son of Charles Henry and Lucinda (MEEKS) GOODSON.
m#1, 16 Nov.1916, to Viola Adaline FEATHERSPOON, b.12 Mar.1886, bpl. Danville, Boyle County, Kentucky, dau. of Thomas Jefferson and Matilda (HARRIS) FEATHERSPOON.
James Morris GOODSON, d.03 Nov.1954, int. City Cemetery, Cambridge City, Wayne

Viola Adaline FEATHERSPOON, d.14 Aug.1955, int. City Cemetery, Cambridge City, Wayne County, Indiana. NOTE: Efficiency in manner of printing dates.

01. Oliver Walker GOODSON, son b.18 Jul.1917, m#1, 14 Jun.1948, to Bessie Marie RYLES.
02. Martha Ann GOODSON, dau. b.11 Dec.1919, m#1, 10 Jan.1942, to George Marcus WAYCLIFF.
03. Ruby Lucinda GOODSON, dau. b.26 Jul.1922, d.23 Apr.1992, never married. see separate history at end of family history.

This identifies the family, parents and children, for whom the history is about.

The following abbreviations are used in the family history introduction paragraph:

b. - born, date of birth, day, month, year.
d. - died, date of death, day, month, year.
bpl. - birthplace, place of birth.
int. - interment, place of burial.
m# - marriage number, e.g., m#2, followed by date of marriage.

Your ancestry consists of many family units and you should organize your history, family unit by family unit. You will have more to write about recent generations because the record is there. As you go back several generations you may be able to find little more than where a family lived and their livelihood. And, remember, there are more members in a family unit than just the husband, or the son who became President. Write about all members of a family unit when you have something to go on. Drop children from a unit's family history when they get married, and pick them up in their family history record.

Expect some problems. Someone may argue that you have a person's name spelled wrong, or you are using a wrong name. This may be a near (dear) relative who just wants to help. You, as the historian, have the hard decision to make. Take a second look at your documentation and, if you find no holes, stick by your guns. However, you might consider inserting an "aside" to the effect that there is a difference of opinion. Another problem which you may have is accepting historical information from a relative of a family. Some will be good, some will be a lot of hot air. You might ask for proof of this and that point and see if you can get a better product. And then, maybe you won't! Any living relatives giving you acceptable information should be recognized with a by-line below the heading. If you can't accept what they give you about all you can do is write a thank-you note and explain (if you can), why you can't use their material.

ORGANIZING THE HISTORY

Divide your FAMILY HISTORY into segments representing different periods during the life of the family. The following segments are guides for you to work by in developing the family history. You do not need to insert these titles in the history. You might have a better narrative by not using titles and, if you use any at all, use some which you develop that may be suited to your history.

Up to this point you have not shown a history for the husband and wife of this family unit. You need to go back and bring their history up from their birth to this marriage. If this is not the first marriage for both husband and wife, you need to make reference to the previous marriage and where the record may be found. There may have been some step-children who were part of this marriage.

1. The Early Years: (From birth to marriage).

This is the beginning of your parent's family history, i.e., the family unit where your father and mother are husband and wife, and you are a child. Up to this point you do not have a history for your father and mother. You have their place of birth recorded in the identification paragraph and do not need to repeat where they were born. However, take a look at their preschool years and see if there was some interesting happenings which you might record. Next consider the School Years through High School. Don't give a day-by-day account, but cover those events which are outstanding. Name and give location of schools attended, scholastic record if something to brag about, extra curricular activities in which outstanding, and positions of honor, such as class president, etc.

Many young people move from High School to College, some don't. Some go to Vocational Tech Schools, and some go into military service from High School. A few generations ago a young man went from school - often less than eighth grade - to that of apprentice in order to learn a trade. During more recent years there are several options open to both boys and girls. In your history cover whichever route they followed; if it was to college, and maybe on to graduate school, give the name and place of school, years attended, degrees and honors received. Consider some but not all extra curricular activities; fraternity/sorority pledged, editor of school paper, quarterback or other sports where outstanding, class president, etc. Be careful how you handle fads, capers, and other escapades which might be embarrassing. At all times, while writing your family history, keep an eye open as to what the political and economical conditions were. Was there war or war clouds on the horizon, was there depression, famine, plagues, and any other abnormal conditions. Also, what the religious situation was, e.g., Salem witchcraft years.

2. In Between:

For most families there will be a work period after school, whether it be High School or College, and before marriage. It may be a short period of a few months or a longer period of several years. You need to cover this period to bring you up to when the family unit was formed by marriage. Did both work? Where and at what? Do you really need to mention alternate life styles?

3. The Marriage:

How did your parents find each other? The marriage ceremony; where, when? Eloped? Name Best Man and Maid of Honor, and other participants. The Honeymoon. Finding a place to live. Moving in.

4. The Career: Describe the work in enough detail so that the reader will understand what it is. Tell of outstanding achievements and progress up the ladder of success. If a military career, identify the branch of service, promotions (but not step-by-step), some experiences, and any outstanding achievements and honors. For other professional career fields describe the individual's particular job that he or she had.

5. Past Generations: Family units are the stepping-stones in your ancestral line. As you move back to the older generations you will find that things were different. One of the first things you need to do is to understand the times in which your ancestors lived. We often forget that the SST (Super Sonic Transport) was not in existence until recently. Once you know where your ancestors lived you need to learn something about the country. There are two valuable sources which you might explore, they are: a Gazette, and an Encyclopedia of the state or states in which they lived. If your local library does not have these publications you might check Heritage Books, Inc., 3602 Maureen Lane, Bowie, MD 20715 for reprints of state Gazettes. Encyclopedias are usually printed by a leading university of a state. These books will tell you a lot about your ancestor's state and the conditions as they existed long ago.

6. Retirement: For some people retirement years are their golden years, for others it is a period of depression and sadness. Times and conditions change from generation to generation. Looking back a few generations we see that children accepted the responsibility of caring for their parents during their old age. As we come to the present times we see that retirement homes are the place of care for many of our older citizens. On the other hand, many persons retiring today find this a period of leisure, a time when they have time to indulge in a bobby or even start on a new venture. The old saying of "going fishing" often doesn't hold much water. Just because some of your ancestors lived a life during their retirement years which seems undesirable to you, doesn't mean that it was undesirable to them. It may have been just what they wanted. The point is; describe their retirement years from how they may have felt, and not how you think they should have felt.

7. Religion: Religion and religious activity should be interwoven throughout your family history in accordance with the recognition and participation given by the family. If a member was an active minister of God you should cover this as his profession and career.

Sources: There are many sources from which you may obtain information for your family history. Some are good and some are not so good. A diary is often a pretty good source. So are old letters (you may have to read between-the-lines). Business account records, payrolls, journals, etc. Old photographs are often a source of information about your family members; how they dressed, the house they lived in, their mode of transportation, their social life, and political activities. Don't forget newspapers - they tell all. Tax records are a source of land ownership information. Other court records can be a help with lawsuits, divorce settlements, etc. Another source is a family history written at an earlier time. When using a previously published family history always consider why it was written, and if the author exhibits considerable objectivity in the views put forth. Check the sources to determine authenticity, and look for recent articles exposing errors in the history.

Caution: There are some sources for family histories which you should be very cautious about accepting. One source is county histories where family members send in their own information for publication. Another dubious source is documents which can be purchased on the "open market", so to speak. One type is a family history for the Jones Family, implying that if your name is Jones this history is about your family. Also, because a person is a member of this or that honor society is not proof of one's lineage. Check out all sources for which there is doubt.

Special Situations: Not every child in a family unit goes to school, graduates, gets married and raises a family. Once in a while a child will live to old age and die without having married. However, there is the child that has a long and productive life which deserves to have a history, even though there was never a marriage. For this child we show a title consisting of the child's name and place it as a family history title at top of first recto page after end of the family unit's history, e.g.,

Ruby Lucinda GOODSON

For a child who has died, without having married, show the child's history in much the same fashion and coverage as that of the child's parents, i.e., early childhood, schools, career, and retirement.

Outsider: Relative for whom you do not have a family history, or non-related person, living with the family. Prepare an abbreviated history and attach it at the end of the family unit history.

Place a star (*) at bottom of last page, followed by address of person or persons preparing the history.

THE DICKSON FAMILY BIBLE

The following bible was submitted by Mr Homer Hobbs a member of the Central Georgia Genealogical Society. Mr. Hobbs came into possession of this Bible thru one of his Scott ancestors however he is not exactly sure of how the relationship exists. He is looking for a little help in determining his relation to the Dickson family. As he is not a Dickson he has expressed a desire to give the Bible to a direct descendent of William Dickson if one can be found. If you have information on this family please contact Mr. Homer Hobbs,

The title page of the bible is missing however on the New Testament page it states that the bible was printed in 1815 in Philadelphia, PA by M. Carey, No, 121, Chesnut-Street. The bible has seen hard use and is missing a few pages but is reasonably good condition. The following is an extract of the family pages.

The following article on the DICKSON family genealogy was written by Mr. A.. T.. Outlaw for the Duplin Times, Kenansville, NC in September 1937. It has not been changed but published as is. You will note that the dates of William Dickson's death differ from the bible and this piece.

CARR, DICKSON, BRYAN, McGOWEN, MOLTEN, PEARSALL, SHEFFIELD, SLOAN, etc:

Colonel JOHN DICKSON, born in Ireland, came to America about the year 1736 and located in Chester Co. PA where he lived for a few years. He then lived for a short time in Maryland and located permanently in Duplin (then New Hanover) Co., NC, about the year 1744. His home place was on Elder, a branch of Maxwell Creek, and was purchased by him in two or more tracts from Captain Archibald Douglass, of the Kingdom of Great Britain and others. His land on Goshen, where he had lived for a short time, was sold to Capt. Joseph GRIMES. Colonel Dickson was a merchant. He was well educated. His handwriting among the old records is a model of excellence. When the county of Duplin was formed from New Hanover in the year 1749, Colonel John Sampson became the first Register (now Register of Deeds), but on account of the excellence of Colonel Dickson's handwriting, the duties of that office were performed by him as the deputy Register. During the year 1751 he became Clerk of the County Court and served through the year 1762. At the same time he served as county Register from 1753 to 1762. He was a member of the Colonial Assembly in the year 1762 and a militia officer for many years.

Colonel Dickson died at his home on Elder, Christmas Day 1774, leaving a large and prominent family. The maiden name of his wife, or wives cannot now be given. Apparently he was married twice. Two children were born in Ireland and the third child was born in Chester Co., PA several years later than the first and second. Evidently two children born in Ireland were by a first wife and all others by a second wife. The names of the children were as follows:

Major MICHAEL DICKSON born 1730-1, was five years of age when he came to America. When about 35 years of age he moved from Duplin Co. to Pendleton District, SC, but did not dispose of all his property in this County until about the year 1795. He was an outstanding patriot during the Revolutionary War and served as an officer in SC and GA. He was also a prominent church leader and served as an elder in his church for a period of 60 years. Major Dickson died at Pendleton August 19, 1825 in the 95th year of his age. No definite record of his family can be given. However, it is said that he was the father of Dr. Samuel Henry Dickson who was perhaps one among the most widely known physicians in this country during his time.

JOHN DICKSON, born about 1731-2 was about four years of age when he came to America. His name appears in Duplin Co. records as a witness when about 25 years of age, but no conveyance to or from him has been found. However, his name appears in his father's Will dated 1774, at which time he was about 42 years of age. Possibly he had moved with his brother Michael to SC

Colonel WILLIAM DICKSON, born in Chester Co., PA in the year 1739 moved with his parents to Duplin Co. when about five years of age. He was a surveyor, Colonial assemblyman, Revolutionary officer and Clerk of the County court for a period of 45 years. He died in Duplin Co. June 25, 1820. His wife was Mary Williams, daughter of Mary (Hicks) and Capt. Joseph Williams. Their children were: (a) Anne Dickson, married William Lanier. They died in Alabama; (b) Dr. William Dickson, married Polly Gray. They moved to Tennessee and Dr. Dickson became a prominent physician and politician of that State. He was Speaker of the Sate House of Representatives and a member of the U.S. Congress; (c) James Dickson, married and moved to Green Co., AL; (d) Joseph Dickson, married Lucy Gillespie and Milder Ann Gillespie, daughters of Dorcas (Mumford) and Major James Gillespie; (e) Mary Dickson, married Isaac Lanier of Anson Co. and moved to Alabama; (f) Lewis Dickson, married Catherine Hill. One daughter married Rev. Lemuel D. Hatch and moved to Greene Co., Alabama and another daughter married Moses T. Abernethy of Lincoln Co. (g) Frances Dickson, married William H. Pickett, a native of Anson Co. and moved to Alabama; (h) Susannah Dickson, married Joseph Gillespie, son of Dorcus (Mumford) and Major James Gillespie. Several of this family moved to Henderson Co., TN; (i) Elizabeth Dickson, married Col. Edward Ward of Onslow Co and died without issue.

Major ROBERT DICKSON married 1st Catherine Pearsall and 2nd Mrs. Barbara Sheffield, widow of Capt. Isham Sheffield. It is said that her maiden name was Barbara Boney. After the death of Robert Dickson, she married John Wilkinson. Major Dickson's children by the first marriage were: (a) Col. John Dickson, moved to Cumberland Co., married Sarah Blocker, and had a large family. Among them was a daughter Martha who married Alexander Torrens Stanford of Duplin, son of Margaret (Torrens) and Rev. Samuel Stanford. Colonel John Dickson was a very wealthy and influential citizen of Cumberland Co. He was one of the founders of the First Presbyterian Church in Fayetteville and served as an elder for many years. He was also a legislator and militia officer; (b) Ann Dickson, fourth wife of Capt. Kedar Bryan, son of Nancy Smith and Needham Bryan. They left a large family, including Needham Bryan who married Sallie Hinton; Robert Bryan, Kedar Bryan, Jr., who married Mary Evans; Ann Bryan who married John Stallings; Catherine Bryan who married Dickson Sloan, and Elizabeth Bryan who married Rev. George Fennell. (c) Pearsall Dickson, moved to Tennessee. (d) Edward Dickson, moved to Tennessee. (e) Catherine Dickson, second wife of Charles Hooks, State Senator, Congressman, etc. They moved to Alabama. (f) Mary Dickson; (g) Elizabeth Dickson. Children by the second marriage (Mrs. Sheffield) were: (h) Susanna Dickson, married col. David Hooks and they had a son named Robert Dickson Hooks, probably others. (I) Robert Dickson, died without issue. (j) William Dickson, married 1st Margaret Sloan and 2nd Margaret Chapman and left a large family. Most of them moved to SC, Florida and Alabama.

JOSEPH DICKSON. He was a surveyor, legislator and Chairman of the county Court for many years. His wife was Jane Molten, daughter of Sarah (Norris) and Capt. Abraham Molten. Their children were all born in Duplin Co. and most of this family moved to Tennessee during the 1790s. The children were as follows: (a) Anne Dickson, third wife of Capt. James Pearsall; (b) Michael Dickson, married Sene Williams and they left a large family; (c) Hugh Dickson, married Hannah Hicks in Tennessee; (d) David Dickson, served for some years as Clerk of the Court in Dickson Co., Tennessee. That County was named for the Dickson family. (e) Molten Dickson, served as County Surveyor and as a State Senator for Dickson County. (f) Joseph Dickson, Jr., lived in Montgomery Co., Tennessee. (g) Abner Dickson, disabled for life in the battle of New Orleans. (h) Col. Alexander Dickson, married Elizabeth Molten, daughter of Sarah (Norris) and Capt. Abraham Molten. No Issue. He was the founder of the "Dickson Charity Fund," still in existence, left by him for the education of the poor in Duplin Co.

JAMES DICKSON, heired the home place of his father on Elder where he lived all his life. He was Register of Deeds of Duplin Co. for a period of 28 years. His first wife was Dorothy Pearsall, daughter of the original Edward Pearsall and his second wife was Mrs. Susannah Carr, widow of James Carr and a daughter of Osborn Powell of Craven County. Children by the first marriage were: (a) Edward Dickson, moved to Tennessee. (b) Eleanor Dickson, married 1st David Sloan and their children included Dickson Sloan who married Catherine Bryan and Cassandra Sloan who married Alexander McGowen and Daniel Cicero Moore. Will of Robert DicksonContributed by Pauline Pierce

Will of ROBERT DICKSON of Duplin County, North Carolina:
In the name of God Amen, I Robert Dickson of the State of North Carolina and County of Duplin. Being in a low state of health but of sound mind and perfect memory blessed be God, do make and ordain this my last will and testamenty in manner and form following Viz.
1. I recommend my soul to God that gave it me and my body to have decent and Christian burial at the decereton of executors here after to be named--

2nd. I will and desir ethat my just debts and funeral charges be paid by my executors out of the most perishable part of my estate.
3rd. Taken from THE DICKSON LETTERS, compiled and edited by James O. Carr-1901.

ROBERT DICKSON, b. ca. 1741-42, in either Maryland or North Carolina. He was a member of the House of Commons from Duplin Co., in 1777, 1784 and 1788, and was appointed a Second Major in the forces of Duplin by the Provincial Congress sitting at Halifax 4 Apr 1776. He appears among the signers of the "Oath of Allegiance and Abjuration," required by the assembly at New Bern, 15 Nov 1777 to promise allegiance to North Carolina and renounce the authority of the King. In the first of the Dickson letters his brother WILLIAM wrote, "he [ROBERT] is a very frugal, industrious man, has about as many working slaves as I have, he lives very well and plentifully, is in as good credit as any man in the county."ROBERT'S plantation in Duplin Co., during the march of CORNWALLIS through the area, became a one day encampment for his army. The date for this establishes the approximate birthdate of his last daughter, ELIZABETH, by his first wife, CATHERINE PEARSALL, and the date of CATHERINE'S death. History establishes CORNWALLIS' march thru Duplin as in the spring of 1781. The first Dickson Letter clearly places the one day encampment at ROBERT'S plantation near the date of 28 Apr 1781 when the N.C. militia was discharged by GENERAL LILLINGTON. WILLIAM DICKSON writes: "The next day after being discharged we returned home. CORNWALLIS' army was then in the middle of our county, encamped at my brother ROBERT DICKSON'S plantation." A few sentences later he writes: "I will now give you some account of how we all fared while the enemy were in our neighborhood. My brother ROBERT had left his place and removed his family and property. The enemy encamped one day and night at his plantation and destroyed some of his stock which he had not got off." A few paragraphs later he writes the crucial information: "Robert moved his property into the back parts of Virginia when Cornewallis went through us and returned in JULY to move his family there also, but his wife died the very day of his return and left him an infant but a few days old, which he put to nurse and returned to Virginia again; but not liking to settle there he returned home as soon as the enemy left Wilmington and being resettled again he married another wife."

HOUSTON COUNTY
GEORGIA GUARDIANS BOND ABSTRACTS
1852-1854

Compiled by William A. Mills

The following abstracts are a portion of the publication entitled: HOUSTON COUNTY, GEORGIA ADMINISTRATORS & GUARDIANS BOND ABSTRACTS, 1852-1870. Copyright 1998 by William A. Mills.

The Houston County, Georgia, Court of Ordinary (Probate Court) would appoint guardians to care for minor children (usually orphans) or incompetent adults. In some cases, a parent was appointed as the guardian for his own child. In most cases, the court required the guardian to post a bond to ensure that he would properly complete his duties, and provide for the minor's needs. The bond required the guardian to pay a fee to the court if he failed to adequately care and provide for the minor. One or more persons were required to co-sign the bond as sureties or securities. These individuals were often members of the family or closely associated with the family.

I compiled these abstracts from the original record books at the Houston County, Georgia, Probate Court in Perry, as follows: Guardian's Bonds: Book "A". The Guardian's Bonds are abstracted in the following format:

1. Page number in the original record book.
2. Date
3. Name of guardian
4. Names of securities
5. Amount of bond
6. Name of orphan(s)
7. Name of deceased parent(s)

Using Technology to Involve Young People in Genealogy

by Barbara Denny George

Have you ever invited a child to go to a library, courthouse, or cemetery hoping to stir a genealogical interest?

Have you ever felt regret that you did not ask your grandparents more questions about the family when you were younger?

Have you ever wondered what will happen to all the "genealogy stuff" when you are no longer around?

All of these questions are part of the issue of involving young people in genealogy. Let's look at how computer and Internet technology (including scanners) have opened a new motivational door that is useful in creating genealogical interests in the youth of today, while helping the older genealogist to "get connected." Current technology is useful as a transitional tool for encouraging the older and younger generations to work together with genealogical research and presentation. The older genealogists with notebooks, file cabinets, and stacks of notes can now ask the younger, "no fear" generation how to utilize the resources on the Internet to enlarge the scope and sequence of genealogical research. Young people will jump at a chance to help with the technological side which provides an opportunity for genealogical interests to surface at a younger age than in previous generations. It also provides an electronic opportunity for older genealogists to talk about the family history with younger members.

I encourage all genealogists to use technology as an excuse to talk to family youth. Your questions might involve any or all of the following technological resources that have had the greatest influence on genealogy:

1. E-mail and Mailing Lists
2. Internet Exploration and Online Courses
3. Computer Software for Genealogy
4. Photograph Preservation
5. Family Reunions or Get-Togethers Online Resources

E-mail and Mailing Lists

Most young people already feel at ease with using e-mail and are very willing to help older family members learn how to use it. Once communication is established between the older and the younger generation, the door is open for involvement in genealogy. Genealogical research by mail has progressed from self-addressed, stamped envelopes (SASE) "snail" mail to electronic mail (e-mail). You can use e-mail for personal exchange of information and for joining mail groups. These groups, called mailing lists, are managed electronic discussions among people with common interests. All of the messages are viewed and exchanged by all members of the group. A good genealogical mailing list for teens is GENTEEN-L@rootsweb.com. This mailing list allows teens to share genealogical queries and comments. The list is supervised by adults and all messages are approved before being placed on the list for the entire group to view. To join GENTEEN, send an E Mail to: GENTEEN-L@ROOTSWEB.COM and put the word SUBSCRIBE in the text part of the message.

Internet Exploration and Online Courses

Older and younger generations can explore the Internet together and, if you're not sure how to start, there are plenty of online classes that can help you. One site that offers online courses is BDG ONLINE. The courses are divided into three categories: hobbies, education, and family. All courses have several self-paced activities with links to explore on the Internet. Online genealogy courses are popular with all ages. Young participants are prompted to gather information from family members. They are provided suggested questions, encouraged to listen, and they learn that writing down stories is essential. Through these online courses, youth are kept informed about upcoming genealogical contests such as the Milton Rubincam Youth Award from the National Genealogical Society (NGS) and introduced to genealogical groups such as NGS. Everyone who takes these courses becomes comfortable exploring the Internet through experience. One of the sites participants are encouraged to visit include the USGenWeb Kidz Site. It's a wonderful place for children. It includes everything from printable forms to ancestral hunts. Other sites that are great for the whole family include:

USGenWeb (a site that has research information online for every state and most counties/parishes within each state);
Rootsweb (which has a variety of information including surname, location, and event related links); and Vital Records Information United States site (which has a click able map of all the states which links to a state site that furnishes addresses, costs, and other important information about obtaining vital records of that state).

Computer Software for Genealogy

It's hard to decide what is important when reviewing all of the various computer software programs on the market for genealogy. You'll have more success if you make a priority list of features you desire while considering purposes and intended use of the resulting data. Do you want to make Web pages with the data? Or do you want to be able to export your data to GEDCOM? Or do you only want to get your data on the computer to preserve it for future generations? Once you've identified your priorities, investigate the software. There are a couple of sites that can help you evaluate software. One is the GenealogySoftware Toolbox -- it has software and company profiles, reviews of software, and links to software Web pages and demonstration versions. You can also turn to a comparison of computer software programs at the Genealogy Software Springboard.

Once you purchase software based on the special features you want, the young people around your house will most likely be very willing to experiment with it and show older genealogists how to put their research on computer, utilizing those special features. This provides a reason for grandpa to sit down with his grandson and enter into a genealogy/technology discussion. As they work together entering data, the younger member becomes exposed to genealogy and the older member becomes comfortable with the maneuverability of the software.

Photograph Preservation

Family photography projects enable participants to understand the importance of treasured family photographs and how to enjoy, preserve, organize, and protect them. The Library of Congress American Memory Project has released online photographs taken by the WPA between 1935 and 1945. (These time frames include the years of a possible living grandparent or great grandparent.) What a perfect discussion starter between a young person and the grandparent as they view these pictures together and discuss the times "back then." It might even encourage someone to pull down the trusty old box or album of family photographs!

Once the family pictures have been brought down, they can be scanned, digitized, repaired, printed, and saved onto computer hard drives or floppy, ZIP, or CLIK! disks for compact storage and retrieval. This is another project that can bridge the age gap between family members. And scrapbooks (now called memory books) are back in style. After you've scanned and safely stored your photographs, the actual photos (or xeroxed copies) can be used for the family memory book. Bob Wendlinger's Memory Triggering Corner for Writers, Scrapbookers, Family Historians, Memoirists gets the brain to ticking. The Attic describes every aspect of making this kind of book. And Just Scrappin' has any supplies that may be needed.

Other technological projects involving photographs and genealogical data and encouraging young people to become involved can be invented by experienced genealogists. A wonderful example of this is Alva Stone's Our Ancestors in American History. This site features younger family members talking about how their ancestors fit into history. There is interaction by those of all ages in the family.

Family Reunions or Get-Togethers Online Resources

Even family reunions or other family get-togethers (holidays, special occasions, or even just weekend gatherings) can provide wonderful opportunities for the young and old to work together on genealogy. Dori (Babcock) VanWatermeulen's Living Genealogy and Family Reunion Awards page (published in Treasure Maps) has a list of fun things to do with mixed generations. The family reunion awards section includes unusual ideas for special awards for reunion contest categories.

Having a story time at family reunions or get-togethers provides another opportunity to share genealogical findings. Youngsters typically find the skeleton-in-the-closet stories fascinating! Older genealogists sometime feel embarrassed over stories about those black sheep of the family, but the youngsters will listen wide-eyed. Reading family Bibles, journals and diaries is one of the most popular activities between multi-age partners around the kitchen table. If family diaries do not exist, read some from the Civil War Center while gathered around the desktop or laptop. This activity will usually inspire all ages to start a journal or diary of some kind to pass down to future generations.

Closing the Gap

The generation gap in genealogy can continue to close through the use of e-mail and Mailing Lists, by exploring the Internet, taking online courses, using genealogical software together, participating in photograph preservation projects, and making family reunions and get-togethers fun for all ages. I'm sure you'll find the results of these genealogical, technological, multi-aged partnerships motivate young people to want to visit libraries, court records, and cemeteries (at least online) without excess prodding. Family questions will be asked and answered through project planning and project interaction rather than forgotten. Then, your family genealogy can be placed online or preserved for easy retrieval by future generations. And that's what you desire in the first place, isn't it?

H.T. GILBERT, DEALER IN DRY GOODS, HATS, CLOTHING, ETC.

The following entries were contained in a journal from H. T. Gilbert, Dealer in Dry Goods, Hats, Clothing, Etc. in Perry, Georgia. The majority of the entries seem to date from 1917-1918, with a few as early as 1913. Many do not have any year recorded but judging from the handwriting seem to be from the 1917-1918 era.

Items recorded as purchased range from buttons, fabrics, suspenders, shoes, ready made goods and some cash advances. Some purchases were paid for with labor, the barter system seems to have been used by some of his customers. The price of each item is listed. It also appears that some accounts were open to charge by other people. Their names are noted by the item charged and are listed as: Other Names Contained.

This journal was found in the basement of the Houston County Courthouse. Mr. Gilbert was serving as the Clerk of Houston County Superior Court at the time of his death and it may have been in his office at this time. The heirs of Mr. Gilbert have graciously allowed this journal to be placed in the Perry Public Library Genealogy Room.

Savannah Morning News Tuesday, August 22,1871

Honor to the Confederate Dead

The arrival of the remains of thirty-two Confederate soldiers from the Gettysburg Battlefield-- Their escort from the Streamer America-- Interment in Laurel Grove Cemetery &c., &c.

The hearts of our people were deeply stirred by the arrival on the steamship America of the remains of thirty-two Confederate soldiers exhumed from the memorable field of Gettysburg now about to be upturned by the plowshear-- to be consigned to their final resting place beneath the soil of their native Georgia.

The American arrived at her wharf yesterday morning and the committee appointed for the reception of the remains, with two hearses, met them at the wharf whence they escorted them to the Exchange, where they were placed in State in the council chamber during the day and looked with melancholy interest upon the three plain chests that contained all that remained of the thirty-two brave Southerners who fell on that memorable occasion. The following pall bearers were appointed for the occassion:

Oglethorpe Light Infantry, Company "B" 8th Regiment, Lieut. S.W. Branch, W.B. Mell, H.L. Davis, W.S. Rockwell, Raif B. Sandiford, D.C. Bacon, Wm. Ed White, W.H.Bennett.

Reid's Battery- Lieut.. R.E.Falligant, James F. Murphy, John Mooney, James Mahoney, R.H.Conway, Daniel Jackson.

Georgia Hussars of Jeff Davis Legion- E.A.Silva, W.L.Walker, Wm. Chisholm, Jas. P. Farr, R.M. Pence, J.A. Sullivan, S.J. Baker.

26th Georgia Regiment- A.J.J.Blois

At four o'clock the hour appointed for the ceremonies, the Committee accompanied by the twenty-four pall bearers who had been selected for the occassion met at the Exchange. The remains were carried down the street, and in the presence of a vast crowd of citizens, and a detachment of the Police force under command of Lieut. Howard, placed in two hearses preparatory to their transportation to the cemetery.

The Policemen preceded by the Washington Coronet Band, marched on, followed by the carriage with the minister of the Episcopal church, Rev. Mr. Benedict and Col. J.F. Waring, formerly of the Jeff Davis Legion. Then came the two hearses with the remains of the dead soldiers, followed by those citizens, once soldiers, who desired to participate in the ceremonies and pay their last tribute of respect to the fallen comrades who's bones had rested on the battlefield for the past eight years. Among those present we noticed representatives of all the old volunteer companies of our city, as well as many others who participated in the struggles of the late Confederacy. No noise or ostentation was perceptible but as the last hearse moved off many of the bystanders stepped into the line and followed with sad countenance. among those we noticed Gen. H.R. Jackson, Maj. W.S. Basinger, Col. Rufus E. Lester and many others who suspended their business for a time in order to participate in these melancholy ceremonies.

As the procession moved through the streets, we marked the sad features of the crowds around. Every store and office on Bay Street along the line of their march was closed. Every respect was observed and the nature of the case demanded. Along the streets the ladies were observed standing at their doors and windows shedding tears as the melancholy cavalcade passed by. Never in the history of our city has a more quite, melancholy, and sadly, appreciated occasion been before our people and never have they seemed to feel more seriously. Arriving at the cemetery, the pall bearers and entire procession advanced with uncovered heads in the presence of hundreds of ladies assembled for the purpose of paying a last tribute of respect to the dead heroes of the "Lost Cause". They proceeded to the place allotted to the burial of the dead. Three graves were prepared for the reception of the three caskets containing the remains and after the reading of the burial service by Rev. Benedict, the Police detachment fired a military salute. A hymn, "Rock Of Ages" was sung by Mrs. M.A.Blois, Mrs. J.Spivey, Mrs. Robert Erwin, Maj. Withers, Mr. W.B.Bell and Lieut. Robert Falligant during the interment.

After the graves were filled up and the last mortal remains of these thirty-two dead confederate soldiers were deposited in their final resting place, the ladies present numbering several hundred, came forward and strewed flowers upon their graves so that they were literally covered with floral offerings. This accomplished, the people turned sadly from the spot hollowed by the dust of the gallant men who gave their lives in defense of the Southern Cause. These relics were recovered from the battlefield by the ladies of the Memorial Association. The names of those interred yesterday are as follows:

ORGANIZATION: The CENTRAL GEORGIA GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY, INC. was organized in October 1978 by James T. Martin of Warner Robins, Georgia. In February 1981 the Society was incorporated as a non-profit organization under the law of the State of Georgia. The U. S. Internal Revenue Service has determined that the Society is a tax-exempt organization under Section 501©(3), U. S. Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The Society is governed by a Board of Directors consisting of the elected and appointed officers and six elected directors.

AREA: The Society's geographical area of primary interest consists of twenty-seven contiguous counties located in central Georgia. They are: BALDWIN, BIBB, BLECKLEY, CRAWFORD, CRISP, DODGE, DOOLY, HOUSTON, JOHNSON, JONES, LAMAR, LAURENS, MACON, MONROE, MONTGOMERY, PEACH, PIKE, PULASKI, TAYLOR, TELFAIR, TREUTLEN, TWIGGS, UPSON, WASHINGTON, WHEELER, WILCOX and WILKINSON.

PURPOSE: The purposes for which the corporation is organized are:

To collect, preserve and disseminate knowledge and information with reference to genealogical and related historical, biographical and heraldic data;

To inculcate and promote interest in research in these fields;

To stimulate and provide instruction in the use of efficient methods and the adherence to principles of accuracy and thoroughness in research;

To champion ethical standards and to discourage and oppose incompetent and disreputable practices or researchers;

To foster careful documentation and otherwise promote scholarly writing;

To issue publications, and;

To promote the collection and preservation of local records which are of genealogical or historical value.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership in the Society is open to any person interested in promoting the objectives stated above. Annual dues for 1999 are $20.00 for individual membership or $25.00 for family membership (husband and wife, or two related individuals in the same household).

TRAINING: At least twice each year the Society conducts classes for beginner genealogists. These classes are free for members in good standing.

WORKSHOP: The Society plans to hold an all-day workshop once each year, complete with exhibits, for members and the public. The registration fee will be set to cover the Society's cost and may vary from year to year, depending upon prices charged for food, meeting facilities, speaker fees, etc.

PROJECTS: The Society undertakes special projects for preservation of genealogical and historical information, such as: microfilming old newspapers, abstracting and publishing county court records, federal census records, cemetery records, etc.

PUBLICATIONS: The Society publishes a monthly NEWSLETTER and a QUARTERLY. The QUARTERLY is published four times per year as number 1 thru 4 and is mailed to all members in good standing. The annual volume number represents the years in existence. Many other societies, who are members, receive our QUARTERLY. QUERIES, from members only, are published in the QUARTERLY free of charge. There is no limit as to the number of queries that a member may submit. BOOK REVIEWS are published when a copy of the book has been received by the Society. After review these books are donated to the Genealogical and Historical Room, Washington Memorial Library, Macon, Georgia, whose holdings is one of the largest in the southeast. Members are encouraged to submit ARTICLES FOR PUBLICATION in the QUARTERLY, and extra long articles may be serialized. The QUARTERLY is not copyrighted and anyone is welcome to make proper use of the contents; however, the use of articles quoted from other published sources is prohibited without permission from the copyright holder. Appropriate credit will be appreciated. The QUARTERLY is not sold by subscription. Current and back issues may be purchased from the Society when available. The Society welcomes the opportunity to publish FAMILY PEDIGREE CHARTS for members. Minimum coverage of four generations is required. Our computer-designed charts provide for as much information on the fifth generation as the second, third and fourth – most charts provide much less. Give us as much complete information as possible on available forms and separate paper.

MEETINGS: The Society holds regular monthly meetings with planned programs. These meetings are currently held at the Flint Electric Building, 1600 Elberta Road, Warner Robins, Georgia at 7.00 P.M. on the third Thursday of each month. In addition to the program, time permitting, a question and answer session is usually conducted for the benefit of members who have a problem with their research, or who have found a better way for accomplishing their work. Visitors and guests are always welcome to attend regular meetings of the Society. Our current membership covers many states and we invite you to join our Society. For a membership application write to the Corresponding Secretary or call (912) 953-3114.

Our Board asked me to include a copy of the Society's Articles of Incorporation and recently updated Bylaws in this issue. The idea was to provide a permanent record of these two documents, and to possibly allow our members to eliminate a folder containing the documents. Also, the Society will save the postage necessary to send these documents separately.

I also told you last issue that we would include the Georgia law concerning cemeteries. I hope this document is useful to those of you who know of developers, or others, who may desecrate graves, or cemeteries. Please inform us of any difficulties, or successes, you may have had concerning this subject. I will share them with our readers.

Another thanks to the folks who continue to contribute articles to the Quarterly. I even had a couple that I could not fit in this issue. Thanks a million! I would like to ask our contributors to identify themselves in the articles. I have an article in this issue (Minutes of Baldwin County Ordinary Court) that was given to me several months ago at one of our monthly meetings and I cannot remember the author. I apologize to you, whoever you are! I must also apologize to Bobby Stokes, who compiled the information from the George R. Banks Funeral Home. I gave credit to Addie Howell in our last issue. Addie typed the information provided by Bobby. Sorry for the confusion, but thanks to Bobby and Addie for their efforts.

A distant cousin from my McLeod line contacted me a couple of months ago. He is from North Carolina and visited the Washington Memorial Library in Macon recently. During the visit he read our last Quarterly and noticed the article about the Dickson Family Bible. As it turns out the Dicksons came from a section of North Carolina very near his home. He copied the article and will distribute copies to local genealogical contacts. Hopefully we will eventually find a home for the Bible with a descendant of those mentioned.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!!!!!!!

PRESERVATION OF OUR ANCESTORS GRAVE SITES

As we go merrily along in our daily business, few of us give thought about what shall happen to us when we finally reach that final point in life. We "give up the ghost", "meet our maker", "go to our reward", or to what ever your particular belief in (or not in) an after life may be. The most common of facts are that most of us are placed in casket (a few , 25% prefer the cremation route) and then planted under the sod (a few prefer mausoleums, especially in New Orleans, LA).. Most of us will be planted in new highly organized cemeteries and a few of us in small church cemeteries and a fewer still in old family cemeteries. The newer cemeteries are set up as perpetual care type but a lot of our older smaller ones are not. What happens to our remains if the church ceases to exist or the cemetery owners go bankrupt or a government freeway or housing developer comes along and wishes to build where we are lying? The fact is we do not and cannot care after we are dead. But what about our descendants? Will they care?

Most people do not think of their ancestors until late in life when they have become these aged old men and women frequenting genealogical archives, pestering court house employees about people that have not been there for centuries (and Oh Yes, these employees would rather we not come) and searching old cemeteries for the graves of their ancestors. Unfortunately for many of them they will find a housing developer has bulldozed the cemetery where one of there ancestors was lain and the old family plot is now under a house and great-great-grandfather is now under the kitchen or worse. The stories of bulldozers and contractors destroying cemeteries are not fiction and a contractor would sooner cover a grave as go through the process to properly move the grave.

Does this upset or bother you? When our ancestors were buried they thought it would be eternity and had no idea that their Graves would not be preserved. Now a freeway lies on top of some of them and or someone walks over their grave site on a daily or more frequent interval depending on what was built on THEIR GRAVE SITE.

Our ancestors cannot do anything about this. It is the duty and obligation of their descendants to protect them. An as there are a lot of greedy, money hungry, unscrupulous developers who don't give a damn about you or anyone else unless it will either make or cost them money one should know the law. Developers will plead ignorance of or either ignore the law completely if they think they can get away with it. It is up to you to hold the line. As each state's laws are different one should become familiar with the laws of the State in which your ancestors are buried and make sure they are enforced. Believe it or not the squeaky wheel can be heard. If you threaten court action you get their attention for in State of Georgia the cost can be high if convicted.

For the those with ancestors buried in the state of Georgia, the following portions from the Georgia Law Code is provided for your knowledge to help you protect your ancestors' graves. All citizens should be aware and question contractors each time they see construction around grave sites. Don't just watch if it is not your relatives.

36-72-1. (a) The care accorded the remains of deceased persons reflects respect and regard for human dignity as well as cultural, spiritual, and religious values. The General Assembly declares that human remains and burial objects are not property to be owned by the person or entity which owns the land or water where the human remains and burial objects are interred or discovered, but human remains and burial objects are a part of the finite, irreplaceable, and nonrenewable cultural heritage of the people of Georgia which should be protected.

(b) It is the intent of the General Assembly that the provisions of this chapter be construed to require respectful treatment of human remains in accord with the equal and innate dignity of every human being and consistent with the identifiable ethnic, cultural, and religious affiliation of the deceased individual as indicated by the method of burial or other historical evidence or reliable information.

36-72-2. As used in this chapter, the term:

(1) "Abandoned cemetery" means a cemetery which shows signs of neglect including, without limitation, the unchecked growth of vegetation, repeated and unchecked acts of vandalism, or the disintegration of grave markers or boundaries and for which no person can be found who is legally responsible and financially capable of the upkeep of such cemetery.

(2) "Archeologist" means any person who is:

(A) A member of or meets the criteria for membership in the Society of Professional Archaeologists and can demonstrate experience in the excavation and interpretation of human graves; or

(B) Employed on July 1, 1991, by the state or by any county or municipal governing authority as an archeologist.

(3) "Burial ground" means an area dedicated to and used for interment of human remains. The term shall include privately owned burial plots, individually and collectively, once human remains have been buried therein. The fact that the area was used for burial purposes shall be evidence that it was set aside for burial purposes.

(4) "Burial object" means any item reasonably believed to have been intentionally placed with the human remains at the time of burial or interment or any memorial, tombstone, grave marker, or shrine which may have been added subsequent to interment. Such term also means any inscribed or uninscribed marker, coping, curbing, enclosure, fencing, pavement, shelter, wall, stoneware, pottery, or other grave object erected or deposited incident to or subsequent to interment.

(5) "Cemetery" or "cemeteries" means any land or structure in this state dedicated to and used, or intended to be used, for interment of human remains. It may be either a burial park for earth interments or a mausoleum for vault or crypt interments or a combination of one or more thereof.

(6) "Descendant" means a person or group of persons related to a deceased human by blood or adoption in accordance with Title 19.

(7) "Genealogist" means a person who traces or studies the descent of persons or families and prepares a probative record of such descent.

(8) "Human remains" means the bodies of deceased human beings in any stage of decomposition, including cremated remains.

(9) "Preserve and protect" means to keep safe from destruction, peril, or other adversity and may include the placement of signs, markers, fencing, or other such appropriate features so as to identify the site as a cemetery or urial ground and may also include the cleaning, maintenance, and upkeep of the site so as to aid in its preservation and protection.

36-72-3. Counties, anywhere within the county boundaries, and municipalities, anywhere within the municipal boundaries, are authorized, jointly and severally, to preserve and protect any abandoned cemetery or any burial ground which the county or municipality determines has been abandoned or is not being maintained by the person who is legally responsible for its upkeep, whether or not that person is financially capable of doing so, to expend public money in connection therewith, to provide for reimbursement of such funds by billing any legally responsible person or levying upon any of his property as authorized by local ordinance, and to exercise the power of eminent domain to acquire any interest in land necessary for that purpose.

36-72-4. No known cemetery, burial ground, human remains, or burial object shall be knowingly disturbed by the owner or occupier of the land on which the cemetery or burial ground is located for the purposes of developing or changing the use of any part of such land unless a permit is first obtained from the governing authority of the municipal corporation or county wherein the cemetery or burial ground is located, which shall have authority to permit such activity except as provided in Code Section 36-72-14.

36-72-5. Application for a permit shall include, at a minimum, the following information:

(1) Evidence of ownership of the land on which the cemetery or burial ground is located in the form of a legal opinion based upon a title search;

(2) A report prepared by an archeologist stating the number of graves believed to be present and their locations as can be determined from the use of minimally invasive investigation techniques, including remote sensing methods and the use of metal probes, which activities shall not require a permit;

(3) A survey prepared by or under the direction of a registered surveyor showing the location and boundaries of the cemetery or burial ground based on an archeologist's report;

(4) A plan prepared by a genealogist for identifying and notifying the descendants of those buried or believed to be buried in such cemetery. If those buried or believed to be buried are of aboriginal or American Indian descent, the genealogist, in preparing the notification plan, shall consult with the Council on American Indian Concerns created pursuant to Code Section 44-12-280 and shall include in the notification plan not only any known descendants of those presumed buried but also any American Indian tribes as defined in paragraph (2) of Code Section 44-12-260 that are culturally affiliated; and

(5) A proposal for mitigation or avoidance of the effects of the planned activity on the cemetery or burial ground. If the proposal includes relocation of any human remains or burial objects, the proposal shall specify the method of disinterment, the location and method of disposition of the remains, the approximate cost of the process, and the approximate number of graves affected.

36-72-6. The applicant shall implement its plan for identifying and locating descendants no later than the date the application is submitted to the governing authority. The governing authority shall review the applicant's plan for identifying and notifying the descendants of the deceased persons and may require as a condition for issuing a permit that the applicant implement additional reasonable attempts to identify and locate descendants. Notice to possible descendants shall include information on how to contact the governing authority and a summary of the rights of descendants under this chapter. The governing authority shall promptly inform any descendant who indicates an interest in the disposition of the human remains and burial objects regarding any proposals for mitigation, the terms of any permit issued, the time and place of any scheduled public hearings, and appeal procedures and events.

36-72-7. (a) Within 15 days after it is satisfied that all reasonable effort has been made to notify descendants, as provided in Code Section 36-72-6, and following receipt of the recommendations of a board or commission created pursuant to Code Section 36-72-9, the governing authority shall schedule a public hearing at which any interested party or citizen may appear and be given an opportunity to be heard. In addition to the notice required in Code Section 36-72-6, notice of the public hearing shall be advertised in the legal organ of the jurisdiction once a week for the two consecutive weeks immediately preceding the week in which any such hearing is held.

(b) Within 30 days after the conclusion of the public hearing, the governing authority shall notify the applicant in writing of its decision. The governing authority shall have the authority to deny the application with written reasons therefor, to issue a permit adopting the application in whole or in part, or to issue a permit which may include additional requirements to mitigate the proposed activity's adverse effects on the cemetery or burial ground, including but not limited to relocation of the proposed project, reservation of the cemetery or burial ground as an undeveloped area within the proposed development or use of land, and respectful disinterment and proper disposition of the human remains. The governing authority may adopt the applicant's proposal for mitigation.

36-72-8. The governing authority shall consider the following in making its determination:

(1) The presumption in favor of leaving the cemetery or burial ground undisturbed;

(2) The concerns and comments of any descendants of those buried in the burial ground or cemetery and any other interested parties;

(3) The economic and other costs of mitigation;

(4) The adequacy of the applicant's plans for disinterment and proper disposition of any human remains or burial objects;

(5) The balancing of the applicant's interest in disinterment with the public's and any descendant's interest in the value of the undisturbed cultural and natural environment; and

(6) Any other compelling factors which the governing authority deems relevant.

36-72-9. The governing authority of any county whose population is in excess of 290,000 as established by the United States decennial census of 1980 or any such future census shall be authorized to establish or empower a new or existing commission or board to hear and review any application filed pursuant to Code Section 36-72-5. The board or commission shall conduct a public hearing within 60 days of the filing of an application and shall make a written recommendation to the governing authority no later than 15 days following the public hearing with respect to the sufficiency of the notice to descendants, the plan for mitigation, the disturbance and adverse effects on the cemetery or burial ground, the survey of the cemetery, and plans for disinterment and reinterment.

36-72-10. The governing authority shall be authorized to impose an application fee which shall reflect the cost to the governing authority for processing and reviewing the application including, but not limited to, the cost of hiring an attorney, independent archeologist, and independent surveyor to assist in making recommendations regarding the applicant's plan. Such fee, if imposed, shall not exceed $2,500.00.

36-72-11. Should any applicant or descendant be dissatisfied with a decision of the governing authority, he or she, within 30 days of such decision, may file an appeal in the superior court of the county in which the cemetery or burial ground is located in addition to the superior courts enumerated in Code Section 50-13-19.

36-72-12. Until the expiration of the time for appeal as set forth in Code Section 36-72-11, the applicant shall not begin or resume activities which comply with the permit issued by the governing authority. If an appeal is filed, the applicant may begin or resume activities which comply with the permit only upon consent of the governing authority and the party seeking judicial review or upon order of the reviewing court for good cause shown.

36-72-13. The governing authority or local law enforcement agency shall inspect as necessary to determine whether the applicant has complied with the provisions of this chapter requiring cessation or limitation of activity and with the terms of the permit as issued by the governing authority or as modified by the superior court or reviewing court.

36-72-14. (a) Notwithstanding any provisions of this chapter to the contrary, when any agency, authority, or political subdivision of the state seeks to file an application for a permit under this chapter, the superior court having jurisdiction over the real property wherein the cemetery or burial ground is located shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the permit application. The superior court shall conduct its investigation and determination of the permit in accordance with Code Sections 36-72-6 through 36-72-8.

(b) When activities of an agency, authority, or political subdivision of the state adversely affect an abandoned cemetery or a burial ground, such agency, authority, or political subdivision shall

When activities of a private person, corporation, or other private entity adversely affect an abandoned cemetery or a burial ground, such person, corporation, or other entity shall bear the cost of mitigating the harm to the cemetery or burial ground or reinterring the human remains. The cost of mitigating the harm to an abandoned cemetery or to a burial ground or reinterring the human remains exposed through vandalism by an unidentified vandal or through erosion may be borne by the governing authority in whose jurisdiction the abandoned cemetery or burial ground is located.

36-72-15. Any disinterment and disposition of human remains or burial objects permitted under this chapter shall be supervised, monitored, or carried out by the applicant's archeologist and shall be done at the expense of the person or entity to whom the permit is issued.

PRESERVING THE FRUITS OF YOUR RESEARCH

By William A. Mills

For those of you who are in various stages of your family history research, have you ever considered what will eventually become of all of your laborious efforts? Have you spent years pursuing your elusive ancestors without a clue of what will become of the stacks of photocopies that you have been gathering? Since you have performed most of this research, you are probably the only one who can make heads or tails of it all. What if something happened to you, and all of your hard work eventually wound up in someone's attic?

Now is the time to make a plan to do something constructive with the results of your research. I am referring to you having your work compiled into a book. For those of you who think that this will just entail too much time and expense, I have got news for you. You can do it! Over the past few years, I have compiled seven different genealogical books, and it is not that difficult to do.

Today, many of the genealogical software programs will produce a book for you. Some of the more popular programs are Family Tree Maker and Legacy Family Tree. Once you have entered all of the names, dates and notes, these programs will organize all of your data into a book. I am not kidding! When you have thrown all of your ingredients into your computer, they will mix it all up for you and generate a professional, quality book. It will have a table of contents, page numbers, and a very impressive index. If you do not have a computer, or you are uncomfortable with computers, perhaps one of your children or grandchildren could assist you with this project. It would be a great time to get the entire family involved.

Once you have generated and printed your book, what is next? For most folks, utilizing a publishing company is out of the question. I would suggest that you contact one of the short-run printing companies to do the pages, and then ship them off to a book bindery yourself. However there are many companies that will do the whole job for you if you have at least 100 books produced.

Once your book is produced, it is vital that you distribute it to the key genealogy libraries throughout the U. S. Of course, the Washington Memorial Library in Macon, GA, has a massive collection of family histories. But the Grand Daddy of them all is the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, Utah. Once you send your publication to them they will offer to microfilm it so that it can be viewed at Family History Libraries throughout the world. They will do this for FREE! This step will insure that the efforts of your hard work are preserved. Once your book is microfilmed, it will be listed in the Family History Library Catalog by the various surnames that appear most often in it. This catalog allows folks to find their families in publications even though the titles do not mention the surname they are seeking. Once the above steps have been completed, sit back and let others enjoy what you have preserved for them with your labor of love. The main fruit of our genealogical effort is the ability to SHARE with others. If this article has supplied fuel for thought, I have accomplished what I set out to do.

EPIDEMICS

By Sandra Perry

In case you ever wondered why a large number of your ancestors disappeared during a certain period in history, this might help. Epidemics have always had a great influence on people....and thus influencing, as well, the genealogists trying to trace them. Many cases of people disappearing from records can be traced to dying during an epidemic or moving away from the affected area. Some of the major epidemics in the United States are listed below.

1657 Boston: Measles
1687 Boston: Measles
1690 New York: Yellow Fever
1713 Boston: Measles
1729 Boston: Measles
1732-33 Worldwide: Influenza
1738 South Carolina: Smallpox
1739-40 Boston: Measles
1747 Conn., NY, PA, & SC: Measles
1759 North America (areas inhabited by white people): Measles

THE CENSUS TAKER

It was the first day of census, and all through the land;
The pollster was ready...a black book in hand.
He mounted his horse for a long dusty ride;
His book and some quills were tucked close by his side.
A long winding ride down a road barely there;
Toward the smell of fresh bread wafting, up through the air.
The woman was tired, with lines on her face;
And wisps of brown hair she tucked back into place.
She gave him some water...as they sat at the table;
And she answered his questions...the best she was able.
He asked of her children...Yes, she had quite a few;
The oldest was twenty, the youngest not two.
She held up a toddler with cheeks round and red;
His sister, she whispered, was napping in bed.
She noted each person who lived there with pride;
And she felt the faint stirrings of the wee one inside.
He noted the sex, the color, the age...
The marks from the quill soon filled up the page.
At the number of children, she nodded her head;
And saw her lips quiver for the three that were dead.
The places of birth she "never forgot";
Was it Kansas? Or Utah? or Oregon...or not?
They came from Scotland, of that she was clear;
But she wasn't quite sure just how long they'd been here.
They spoke of employment, of schooling and such;
They could read some and write some...though really not much.
When the questions were answered, his job there was done;
So he mounted his horse and he rode toward the sun.
We can almost imagine his voice loud and clear;
"May God bless you all for another ten years."
Now picture a time warp...it's now you and me;
As we search for the people on our family tree.
We squint at the census and scroll down so slow;
As we search for that entry from long, long ago.
Could they only imagine on that long ago day;
That the entries they made would effect us this way?
If they knew, would they wonder at the yearning we feel;
And the searching that makes them so increasingly real.
We can hear if we listen the words they impart;
Through their blood in our veins and their voice in our heart.

In a Thurmont, MD, cemetery:

Here lies an atheist
All dressed up
And nowhere to go.

In a cemetery in England:

Remember, man, as you walk by,
As you are now, so once was I,
As I am now, so shall you be,
Remember this and follow me.

To which someone replied by writing on the tombstone:

To follow you I'll not consent,
Until I know which way you went.

The grave of Ellen Shannon in Girard, PA, is almost a consumer tip:

Who was fatally burned

By the explosion of a lamp

Non-Explosive Burning Fluid"

HOUSTON COUNTY
GUARDIAN'S BOND ABSTRACTS
1855-1857

The following abstracts are a portion of the publication entitled: HOUSTON COUNTY, GEORGIA, ADMINISTRATORS & GUARDIANS BOND ABSTRACTS, 1852-1870. Copyright 1998 by William A. Mills.

The Houston County, Georgia, Court of Ordinary (Probate Court) would appoint guardians to care for minor children (usually orphans) or incompetent adults. In some cases, a parent was appointed as the guardian for his own child. In most cases, the court required the guardian to post a bond to ensure that he would properly complete his duties, and provide for the minor's needs. The bond required the guardian to pay a fee to the court if he failed to adequately care and provide for the minor. One or more persons were required to co-sign the bond as sureties or securities. These individuals were often members of the family or closely associated with the family.

I compiled these abstracts from the original record books at the Houston County, Georgia, Probate Court in Perry, as follows: Guardian's Bonds: Book "A". The Guardian's Bonds are abstracted in the following format:
